

INFORMATION BULLETIN

2013JAG0094-000536
March 18, 2013

Ministry of Justice
BC Coroners Service

BC Coroners Service confirms investigation into death

KELOWNA – The BC Coroners Service has confirmed it is investigating the sudden death of a man whose body was found in his home near Chase on March 12.

He was John Pasquale Boncore, also known as Splitting the Sky or by his native name, Dacajeweah, aged 61, a resident of the Adams Lake reserve near Chase.

Mr. Boncore was found by friends in his residence on March 13, 2013. He was deceased at the scene and is believed to have died the previous day.

The BC Coroners Service and Chase RCMP continue to investigate this death. Foul play now has been ruled out. Post-mortem testing has been ordered to try to determine a clear cause of death.

The family of Mr. Boncore has been notified of his death. On behalf of the family, the BC Coroners Service asks that the media respect their privacy at this difficult time.

For further information, please contact:

Barb McLintock
Coroner, Strategic Programs
BC Coroners Service
250-356-9253

Connect with the Province of B.C. at: www.gov.bc.ca/connect