BRITISH COLUMBIA MARKETING BOARD

IN THE MATTER OF AN APPEAL PURSUANT TO THE NATURAL PRODUCTS MARKETING (BC) ACT, R.S.B.C.
1979, c. 296, s. 11

BETWEEN:

LILLOOET GROWERS AND PACKERS LTD.

APPELLANT

AND:

BRITISH COLUMBIA VEGETABLE MARKETING COMMISSION

RESPONDENT

DECISION

APPEARANCES:

I.J. UDY on behalf of the Appellant

J. HARRIS and R.G. TOWSLEY on behalf of the Respondent

1. Lillooet Growers and Packers Ltd. appeals a decision of the British Columbia Vegetable Marketing Commission to the British Columbia Marketing Board.

2. The Appellant, Lillooet Growers and Packers Ltd., was issued a wholesaler licence No. 559 on August 19, 1983, by the B.C. Vegetable Marketing Commission. On April 30, 1984, the B.C. Vegetable Marketing Commission advised the Appellant that the wholesaler licence it requested was not to be renewed in 1984. The Appellant has appealed that decision of the Commission.

3. Because of the urgent nature of the Appellant's appeal, the British Columbia Marketing Board has decided to issue this decision, to be followed later by the Board's Reasons for Judgment.

4. The Board orders the B.C. Vegetable Marketing Commission to issue to the Appellant a wholesaler licence to expire on the 31st day of March, 1985, on the same terms and conditions as its previous licence No. 559 issued August 19, 1983, except that the Board considers it appropriate and orders that the wholesaler licence issued to the Appellant shall not be limited to doing business as to the purchase of the regulated product only with an agency of the Commission doing business in any district in British Columbia under the scheme.

5. In accordance with this Board's Rules of Appeal, the Appellant's deposit of one hundred dollars ($100.00) shall be returned to the Appellant.

DATED the 5th day of July, 1984, in Richmond, British Columbia.
