Dear Client Name:

RE: Application for maintenance from Respondent Name

The Family Maintenance Program tries to obtain maintenance orders by consent to avoid the need for a court hearing. In your case, we have not been able to obtain a consent for maintenance as the respondent is disputing paternity for Child(ren) name (s).

The ministry will arrange for DNA testing as soon as possible. A representative from DNA Testing Agency Name will be in touch with you to make arrangements for the testing. It is a condition of your Assignment that you and the child(ren) take part in the DNA testing.

We will be in touch with the respondent to make the necessary arrangements for him to be tested as well.

We will be provided with the results of the tests within two weeks of the date both samples are received. We will then contact you to discuss the results, and whether or not we will be continuing with maintenance action.

Please do not hesitate to contact me at Worker Number if you have any questions.

Sincerely,

Worker Name
Family Maintenance Worker
