UNIVERSITY OF THE FRASER VALLEY Executive Compensation Disclosure Statement for 2010/2011

The following report provides an accurate representation of all compensation provided to all employees whose base salary was $125,000 or greater in the fiscal year 2010/2011.

Executive Compensation Philosophy

The University of the Fraser Valley's senior executives lead the university in providing the best undergraduate education in Canada; in being a leader of social, cultural, economic, and environmentally-responsible development in the Fraser Valley; and in ensuring innovative, entrepreneurial, and accountable achievement of the university's goals.

The University of the Fraser Valley's executive compensation philosophy is to develop competitive compensation packages that allow the university to achieve its goals through recruiting, developing and retaining the best candidates from a national market.

Salary

The University of the Fraser Valley recognizes that the BC Public Sector has adopted the Public Sector Executive Compensation Reporting Guidelines. The following University of the Fraser Valley compensation practices respond to these BC public policy guidelines:

The University of the Fraser Valley Board of Governors is responsible for the executive compensation of its President and Vice-Chancellor. The maximum base salary and total compensation allowable for the President and Vice-Chancellor is set and determined by PSEC.

The President's salary is the highest salary paid to a senior executive at University of the Fraser Valley and all other executive compensation is set below this maximum. Through delegated authority by the Board, the President and Vice-Chancellor is responsible for determining the compensation of the other executive members.

Merit Pay

The University of the Fraser Valley's senior executives progress through the salary range based on merit. The amount of merit pay is determined through the annual performance review process, and includes the setting of annual objectives.

Annual objectives are determined for all members of the senior executive. In the case of the university President, the setting of objectives and how they will be measured is determined by the University Board in consultation with the President. Objectives for Vice-Presidents and how they will be measured are established by the President in discussion with each Vice-President. Measures may be qualitative or quantitative.

Health and Welfare Benefits, Pensions

The University of the Fraser Valley provides a comprehensive set of health and welfare benefits to its executives. The benefit package is consistent with that provided for other employees of University of the Fraser Valley. The university offers its executives subscription to the College Pension Plan as per the prevailing regulations of the College Pension Act.

Leaves

The vacation entitlement for executives is aligned with the vacation provided for other administrative employees at University of the Fraser Valley.

University of the Fraser Valley provides its executives with academic/research leave. Such leaves recognize the importance of renewal and educational advancement, and as applicable, allow executives to prepare for a return to academic responsibilities at the end of their term(s).

Full Disclosure

The University of the Fraser Valley makes regular and full public disclosure of the compensation of each executive officer in accordance with relevant public policy and statutes.
