2. Please give a brief description of new initiatives implemented by school districts for French second language programs.

In the late immersion program, senior secondary students attended an outdoor education / team-building camp. They then worked as counsellors at the French Immersion outdoor camps for both the grade 7 and grade 9 students.

Core French teachers in elementary schools purchased and used document cameras.

3. Please give a brief description of planned expenditures by school districts for carried over federal funds for school year 2011/2012.

A. Core French:

1. SD# 8 Kootenay Lake will be field-testing the new Languages Curriculum. Although there will be funding from the Ministry, we wish to support these teachers with additional funding for purchasing resources and connection to the francophone world.

2. Resource review and purchase for all Core French classes grades 1 through 12.

B. Late (grade 6) French Immersion

1. Support for an increased number of cultural events.
2. Support for team-building and outdoor camps.
3. Support for new courses offered at grades 9 and 12.
4. Improved classroom access to Internet in all middle school classes.
