List the top three actions taken by your organization in 2013 to reduce GHG emissions and/or improve sustainability

1. Educating British Columbians about the issues of climate change, conservation and sustainability.

Programs made available on-air and online at Knowledge.ca in 2013:

Architects of Change III - Profiles 30 Canadian visionaries and pioneers, five in BC, who are creating new models for economic and social development without compromising resources for future generations.

Earth Days – Features personal testimony and rare archival footage tracing the origins of the modern environmental movement in America.

Dirt! The Movie - The story of Earth's most valuable and underappreciated source of fertility, from its miraculous beginning to its crippling degradation.

The Hollow Tree - Features a group of citizens united to find a solution to keep the Hollow Tree after a massive storm hit Stanley Park in 2006.

No Impact Man - Follows Colin Beavan and his family during their year-long experiment to have a sustainable lifestyle with zero impact on the environment.

End of the Line - Examines the devastating impact of overfishing on our oceans, based on the book by investigative reporter Charles Clover.

Secrets of the Emerald Sea - Sarika Cullis-Suzuki explores the ocean off the west coast of BC for a look at the remarkable creatures that live there.

How To Grow a Planet - The story of how plants have, time and again, set the agenda for life and growth on our planet, with geologist Iain Stewart.

2. Media Partnerships

Organizations with messages about conservation or sustainability broadcast on Knowledge Network in 2013:

Encorp – Drink Box campaign targeted at young people to recycle their juice boxes.

3. Knowledge Magazine

All Knowledge Partner print materials, including our bi-monthly publication distributed to 38,000 donors, is printed on FSC paper (FSC Forestry Stewardship Council).

Describe Plans your organization has for continuing to minimize your GHG emissions

As a tenant in a building owned and operated by the British Columbia Institute of Technology, building operations to minimize GHG emissions are beyond our control.

As British Columbia's viewer supported public broadcaster, we are committed to acting responsibly on the environment and to increase awareness of environmental and climate change issues with our viewers across the province.
