

BRITISH COLUMBIA

On this day, November fourth, two thousand and eight, the Province of British Columbia is honoured to recognize the resolution of Cut-off claims with twenty two First Nations.

Alexandria Indian Band	Nazko Indian Band	Tseshah First Nation
Beecher Bay First Nation	Okanagan Indian Band	Tlatlasikwala Band
Chemainus First Nation	Osoyoos Indian Band	Ulkatcho First Nation
Gitwangak Band Council	Penticton Indian Band	Upper Similkameen Indian Band
Huu-ay-aht First Nation	Quatsino First Nation	Westbank First Nation
Gingolx	Seton Lake Indian Band	Whispering Pines/ Clinton Indian Band
Lax Kw'alaams Band	Songhees Nation
Metlakatla Band	Squamish Nation

We do so in the spirit of the New Relationship with the Aboriginal peoples of British Columbia and the recognition of their rich culture, traditions and heritage.

We do so in the shared hope that together we can move beyond the shadows of the past and build a new future of prosperity and possibility for the generations who will follow that will be heirs to the legacy of goodwill and partnership of this proud day.

And we do so in the shared desire that all Aboriginal peoples across British Columbia will flourish and prosper in this abundant land of towering mountains, mighty rivers and deep forests. We will continue our journey together in this land that we call home.

HONOURABLE MICHAEL DE JONG
MINISTER OF ABORIGINAL RELATIONS
AND RECONCILIATION