

BONDING REQUIREMENTS FOR A LIVESTOCK DEALER LICENCE

Applicants for a licence to purchase and sell livestock under the bonding requirements of the Animal Health Act, Licensing Regulations must furnish security as outlined in Section 2 in the form of a bond of security licensed under the Insurance Act. Letters of credit are also acceptable.

The beneficiary of the security bond should be the “Minister of Finance and Corporate Relations” and sent to:

Livestock Health Management and Regulation
B.C. Ministry of Agriculture
1767 Angus Campbell Road
Abbotsford, B.C.
V3G 2M3

If the bond is on-going, a copy of confirmation of renewal from the bonding company must be sent to the Health Management & Regulatory Unit showing the bond expiry date. This can be arranged through your insurance company.

A valid security bond must be in place to receive a licence.
