Decision of Special Prosecutor

Victoria – The Criminal Justice Branch (CJB), Ministry of Justice, announced today that independent Special Prosecutor David Butcher, QC has approved charges under the British Columbia Election Act against a corporation and two individuals. The charges arise out of conduct that is alleged to have occurred during the Port Moody-Coquitlam provincial by-election in 2012. The Chief Electoral Officer for British Columbia has given his written consent to the prosecution, as provided for under section 252 of the Election Act.

Charges were sworn today in British Columbia Provincial Court (Vancouver) against Brian Ashly Bonney, Mark Robertson, and 0750837 B.C. Ltd. dba Mainland Communications, under Court file number 235780. A copy of the sworn Information is attached to this Media Statement. A first appearance date has been scheduled for October 14, 2014 in Vancouver.

On August 29, 2013, at the request of the Royal Canadian Mounted Police (RCMP), Assistant Deputy Attorney General M. Joyce DeWitt-Van Oosten, QC appointed Mr. Butcher as an independent Special Prosecutor to assist with an investigation arising out of matters addressed in the Review of the Draft Multicultural Strategic Outreach Plan, as well as alleged infractions of the Election Act. The Branch announced the appointment of Mr. Butcher in September 2013, after police advised that making the appointment public would not jeopardize the investigation.

On September 5, 2014, Mr. Butcher advised CJB that he had approved charges against the above noted individuals and corporation. The evidence in support of these charges was gathered during the course of the investigation for which Mr. Butcher has been providing assistance in the form of legal advice to investigators.

Within the context of his mandate as a Special Prosecutor, Mr. Butcher has had ongoing communication with investigators since his appointment, and has received material from the investigators for his review and consideration. As in other investigations, the nature and content of these communications, and the Special Prosecutor's ongoing deliberations, remain confidential. The investigation is continuing.

The Special Prosecutor does not expect to receive the final results of the continued investigation until early 2015. Once the investigation is complete and Mr. Butcher has reviewed the whole of the material provided by police, he will release the results of any decisions that he
