

Summer Program – Legal Services Branch

The Legal Services Branch of the Ministry of Attorney General for British Columbia is hiring three students for summer 2018 through on campus interviews being coordinated by the three law schools in British Columbia. These temporary articles are open to students currently in law school who will have completed their second year by May 1, 2018. Two positions are located in Victoria, and one is located in Vancouver.

These three positions may lead to articles for 2019-20, subject to satisfactory performance and subject to budgetary approval. Applications for articles not linked to summer positions will be accepted from the middle of January to the end of February 2018. Details on applying for those positions will be available through the Applying For Articles page starting on January 15, 2018.

The three summer positions will be litigation focussed, with the possibility of other legal work as well. Successful applicants will be responsible for any travel, accommodation and other costs related to residing in Victoria or Vancouver during the term of the employment.
