WEEKLY INCIDENT REPORT 05 – 11 Oct 2015

DANGEROUS GOODS

On 07 Oct 15, Coast Guard Environmental Response responded to reports of a sailing vessel that sank in the Annacis Channel approximately 1 km upstream from the Shelter Island Marina in Richmond. The Ministry of Environment Response Officer (MOE RO) raised the incident to Code 2 (urgent status) due to the potential pollution and heightened media attention.

On 08 Oct 15, a concerned citizen reported that there was a small pleasure craft on the rocks surrounded by an oil sheen on the north arm of the Fraser River near 2020 East Kent Avenue South in Vancouver. The MOE RO raised the incident to Code 2 (urgent status) due to the potential pollution and heightened media attention. Coast Guard Environmental Response responded to investigate and reported minimal pollution was found and incident was downgraded to Code 1.

On 10 Oct 15, Ladysmith Fire Department responded to the Frank Jameson Community Centre when a chlorine leak resulted in an evacuation and closure of the facility. The MOE RO raised the incident to Code 2 (urgent status) while the site was secured and the chlorine tanks were attended to. Quantum Murray Environmental Services was contracted from the lower mainland to remove the leaking chlorine tanks. The incident was downgraded once the tanks had been successfully removed and the facility was safe to reopen to the public.

On 11 Oct 15, a vessel went aground on Shell Beach in Fulford Harbour (Saltspring), The MOE RO raised the incident to a Code 2 (urgent status) due to the potential for pollution and heightened media attention. The incident was downgraded after it was reported that the vessel was high and dry and not polluting.

On 11 Oct 15, 2500 liters of diesel entered Hardy Bay, west of Masterman Islands from a punctured diesel tank on a vessel. The MOE RO raised the incident to a Code 2 (urgent status) due to the potential pollution.

BODY RECOVERY

On 10 Oct 15, Salt Spring Island SAR were called out to recover a body for the RCMP and the Coroner.

On 11 Oct 15, Arrow Lakes SAR were called out to recover a body for the RCMP and BC Coroners Service.

FLOODING

On 06 Oct, the City of Maple Ridge advised that they were monitoring log jams that had accumulated on the Allouette River between 224th Street and 136th Ave, which could pose a potential risk of flooding for nearby residents and public infrastructure if the river was to rise from rains. No task has been issued at this time.

On 10 Oct 15, a concerned citizen reported to DFO that there was major flooding occurring in Coquitlam at the Woodland Trailer Park and the cause was creek that had become blocked with debris. A representative from Ministry of Forests Lands and Natural Resource Operations (FLNRO) and the local Emergency Program Coordinator for Coquitlam responded and assessed the scene.
