5.04.2 DEFINITIONS

See Terms and Definitions

Personal Equipment and Property: Property and equipment the use of which is essential to an approved training or response task and for which no user fee is provided.

Major Equipment: Equipment, such as personal vehicles, snowmobiles, ATVs, boats and generators the use of which is reimbursed based on the EMBC Volunteer Reimbursement and Allowance Rate policy.

5.04.3 POLICY STATEMENT

- (1) EMBC will reimburse volunteers and volunteer groups for personal property or equipment lost or damaged as the result of an approved operational or training task as follows:
 - a. Personal Equipment and Property - full cost of repair or replacement, whichever is less.
 - b. Major Equipment – the lesser of the actual repair costs or the cost of the deductible portion of insurance coverage to a maximum of $1,000.00 whether insured or not.

5.04.4 CONDITIONS/RESPONSIBILITIES

- (1) Loss or damage must have resulted as the direct result of responding to, conducting or returning from an approved tasking. No claims for damage to major equipment during training will be considered.
 - (2) Reimbursement will not be provided where negligence is shown or indicated.
 - (3) Repair/replacement costs that do not meet the requirements and conditions of EMBC policies and procedures will be considered the responsibility of the registered owner.
