We recently reviewed the third party administration of your file and have determined that third party administration is still required. As part of this review, we have considered the documentation on your case for the past year, reviewed the information you have provided us during our phone call to you on Click here to enter a date and consulted with your third party administrator in regards to your behavior and interactions with them.

Describe the basis for the ministry's decision to continue third party administration

If you disagree with the ministry's decision to third party administer your case, the ministry has a complaint resolution process that you can follow through your third party administrator (see attached Service Commitment poster). Your third party administrator can relay your concerns to the ministry, then your third party administrator can request to speak to a Community Relations and Service Quality Manager. Alternatively you may forward your concerns, in writing, to a Community Relations and Service Quality Manager as needed. This can be sent through your third party administrator or insert how client can submit concerns in writing to the appropriate CRSQ, i.e. local ministry office drop box, ministry fax #, by mail.

As per ministry policy, all third party arrangements are monitored at least annually; your file will be reviewed by Click here to enter a date, to see if your third party administration arrangement is still required. As part of this, a ministry supervisor will review your file and all documentation and interactions during the time you are third party administered. The ministry will also be consulting with Pick an item from the drop down list Additionally, you will have an opportunity to submit information in writing to the ministry directly in regards to your third party administration arrangement. This can be done through the Third Party Administration Client Review Form (see attached). Please complete and mail this to the ministry.
