

Challenge Fifteen

Shenade realized that she didn't BCC the distribution list, it expanded and exposed everyone's email addresses, what should she do?

The first thing is Don't Panic

- It is far more preferable to report something that is not an incident than not report something that is. You will not be disciplined for an honest mistake.
- Find your Incident Reporting procedures and send us a copy or link!

Hint: I found mine on a search engine.
