

Challenge Four

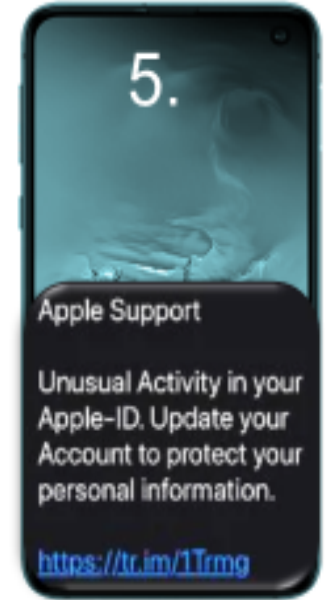

"SMS" stands for "short message service" and is the technical term for the text messages you receive on your phone. This is a perfect delivery vehicle for a 'Smishing' attack.

The Oxford Dictionary defines Smishing as:

"The fraudulent practice of sending text messages purporting to be from reputable companies in order to induce individuals to reveal personal information, such as passwords or credit card numbers."

Which one would you action?

Send answer to OCIOSecurity@gov.bc.ca

Subject: Challenge Four