

Tenant's Application for Dispute Resolution—Current Tenancy #RTB-12T-CT

How to use this form:

- Paper forms must be submitted in person at a Service BC Centre that accepts Residential Tenancy Branch (RTB) forms or at the Burnaby RTB office.
- The online application is available 24/7 from any computer or mobile device: https://www2.gov.bc.ca/gov/content/housing-tenancy/residential-tenancies/help#applyonline

Important information about your application:

- Your application will not be processed unless all required information is provided and legible and a $100 filing fee has been received or waived.
- Required information includes key dispute information, at least one issue selected, at least one respondent with full name and service address provided, and a signature.
- The information you provide about the issue(s) you select must be support by your evidence. When possible, please describe the specific events that gave rise to your application.
- You must be able to serve documents to your landlord(s) or representative(s). The applicant will receive a Notice of Dispute Resolution Proceeding package to serve all respondents and may be required to declare service by a deadline. The RTB may refuse to consider an application that is not served properly, and your filing fee will not be refunded.
- If you cannot serve documents using an approved method (like in person, registered mail), you can apply for substituted service to serve documents in a different way. It allows you to request permission to serve the documents using an alternate method. Complete and submit form #RTB-13 Application for Substituted Service with this application to serve using an alternate method.
