DECLARE NOW

To Company X:

Your 2023 list of custom seafood processing clients or declaration is due 18 January 2024 for:

Facility Location	Provincial ID	Federal ID

All B.C. seafood processing plants are required to provide us with a report on custom processing activities. Data from all B.C. seafood processors, receivers, vendors and seafood marketers are combined and used for:

- Economic analyses
- Program development
- Sector funding decisions
- International fisheries treaty negotiations

Depending on your circumstances, please email one of the following to fishstats@gov.bc.ca by 18 January 2024:

1) LIST OF CUSTOM PROCESSING CLIENTS

If your company custom processed, froze or held B.C. commercial seafood products for clients during the 2023 calendar year, you must submit a Custom Seafood Processing Client List (xlsx) for each plant location. Please provide a complete list of all commercial clients and their full contact information, including email addresses. Do not include recreational harvest clients.

If you do not have Excel software, you can use Google Sheets (<https://www.google.ca/sheets/about/>) to complete the client list.

OR

2) DECLARATION OF NO CUSTOM PROCESSING

If your company did not custom process, freeze or hold commercial B.C. seafood products for clients during the 2023 calendar year, you must submit the declaration below for each plant location:

I/we declare that the company and plant listed below did not custom process, store or freeze B.C. commercial seafood products for clients during the 2023 calendar year, and do not have a list of custom processing/storage clients to submit.
