A photograph of two students, a young man and a young woman, kneeling on a shiny, reflective floor in a locker room. They are both focused on cleaning up papers and debris. The young man is on the left, wearing a maroon long-sleeved shirt and dark pants. The young woman is on the right, wearing a red and black plaid shirt over a light-colored t-shirt and blue jeans. The background shows rows of wooden lockers with glass doors, some of which contain trophies and posters.
