Marriage Introduction

The Agency records all marriages that occur in BC. Unlike the birth and death statistics, which are based on usual residence, marriage information includes all marriages performed in the province whether the parties were residents or non-residents. The Agency does not record divorce decrees. The tables in this section contain information about marriages by previous marital status, ages of the parties involved, and type of ceremony.

In Table 51, the 21,831 marriages are categorized by the previous marital status of each partner. In 2011, in 67.7 percent of marriages (14,783), both partners were marrying for the first time, and in 17.8 percent (3,886), one of the partners was marrying for the first time. There were 2,510 marriages (11.5 percent) where both partners were previously divorced.

Table 52 shows number of marriages by ages of those marrying in 2011. There were 6,791 marriages (31.0 percent) where both parties were in their 20s and 4,231 marriages (19.4 percent) where both parties were in their 30s. There were also 289 marriages (1.3 percent) where at least one of the parties was in their teens and 1,198 marriages (5.5 percent) where at least one of those marrying was 60 years or older.

Table 53 indicates that there were 7,384 registered religious representatives in BC but less than half of them (3,054) solemnized marriages in 2011. Of all marriages in 2011, religious representatives solemnized 37.6 percent (8,201).

Table 54 shows the number of marriages performed by marriage commissioners, both private and public servants, and the number of each type of commissioner with appointments in 2011. The table indicates that 62.4 percent (13,630) of all 21,831 marriages were civil ceremonies performed by commissioners. Since 1988, when commissioners performed 42.5 percent of marriages, the share of civil marriages has risen steadily.
