Dear Sirs/Mesdames:

Re: Vegetable Supervisory Review and Prokam Enterprises Ltd.

I am currently travelling in Africa with only intermittent email access but have read the letter from Prokam's counsel dated December 30, 2019. In my view, the position of Prokam, in raising allegations of bias, blanket evidentiary objections and threatening that judicial review may be sought if the ruling is not in favour of Prokam, is troubling. On behalf of BC Fresh, I am requesting time to allow further consideration of Prokam's position and, in particular, time to consider the bias and evidentiary issues described in Prokam's letter. I make this request for the purpose of addressing whether further legal proceedings at the instance of Prokam may be avoided. If any of Prokam's issues can be addressed by the FIRB now, in my respectful submission, we should do so prior to any further ruling or decision in this matter. I return to Vancouver January 6, 2020.

Yours truly,

FARRIS LLP
