

Ministry of Agriculture

Beekeeping Books & Periodicals

Apiculture Bulletin #003

Updated: 08/15

Books

A large number of books are available to beekeepers and can be ordered through most bookstores and through the Internet. Some of the most popular books may be available at your local bee supplier. Popular and widely used reference books include:

- “Honey Bee Diseases & Pests”, 3rd Ed. Can. Assoc. Professional Apiculturists (CAPA)
- “Storey’s Guide to Keeping Honey Bees”, Malcolm T. Sanford, Storey Publishing
- “Beekeeping in Western Canada”, Alberta Agriculture (Publisher)
- “The Hive and the Honeybee”, Dadant and Sons Inc., Hamilton, Illinois 62341
- “ABC to XYZ of Beekeeping”, A.I. Root Co, Medina, Ohio
- “The Biology of the Honey Bee”, M. L. Winston, Harvard University Press

Internet

There are numerous websites available on the internet focused on every facet related to bees and beekeeping. Some useful websites include:

- Ministry of Agriculture
- B.C. Honey Producers Association
- Canadian Honey Council
- Alberta Beekeepers

Popular Periodicals

BeesCene (BCHPA)

beescene@beekeepers.com

Hive Lights

(subscription included in BCHPA membership)

Alberta Bee News (ABC)

honeybee@albertabeekeepers.org

American Bee Journal (Dadant)

Hamilton, Illinois 62341, U.S.A.

Bee Culture (Root)

P.O. Box 706, Medina, Ohio 55256, U.S.A.