

OVERVIEW

Farm labour contractors provide labour to producers in connection with the planting, cultivating or harvesting of agricultural products. Producers must use licensed farm labour contractors.

Use this form to apply for a farm labour contractor licence or to renew an existing licence. You can also apply online for faster processing.

BEFORE YOU START

Gather your documents

You'll need to provide the following documents along with your application:

- A letter from your bank or credit union confirming you will direct deposit wages for your workers, including the bank or credit union's name and branch address
- A clearance letter from WorkSafeBC for your business
- Inspection reports from the Commercial Vehicle Safety and Enforcement Vehicle Inspections & Standards Program for all vehicles used to transport workers
- A completed Release of Information form
- A completed Farm Labour Contractor Examination
- Calculate and pay the financial security (see opposite)

Prepare the following details to fill out your application:

Part 1 – Farm labour contractor information

- The legal name, BC registry number (if applicable) and WorkSafeBC account number of the farm labour contractor
- The farm labour contractor's contact information
- How many producers you worked with in the past year

Part 2 – About the contact person

- Information and contact details for the person filling out the application

Part 3 – About the directors

Re: Farm Labour Contractor – Posting Security for Employees

The Employment Standards Act requires farm labour contractors to be licensed. A farm labour contractor's licence is valid for 3 years from the date of issue.

The purpose of this letter is to aid financial institutions with information about a farm labour contractor's requirement to post security for their employees.

The security must be posted under the Bonding Act and must be of a type that is listed in section 8 of the Bonding Regulations. Applicants for a farm labour contractor licence must post security equal to 80 hours at minimum wage for each employee:

June 1, 2025 – $17.85 per hour

For example: As of June 1, 2025, a first-time farm labour contractor with 10 employees would use the following calculation:

$$$17.85 \text{ (minimum wage)} \times 80 \text{ hours} \times 10 \text{ employees} = $14,280.00$$

Irrevocable Letter of Credit (ILOC)

Under the Employment Standards Act, employees have 6 months from their last day worked to file a formal complaint. Therefore, if security is posted by way of an ILOC, it must remain valid for 6 months after the farm labour contractor's licence expires. The ILOC must be automatically extended from the expiry date and include such a clause.

The amount of posted security can be reduced as follows if a farm labour contractor has not contravened a "core requirement" of the Employment Standards Act:

Period of non-contravention	Multiplier (number of hours)
1 year to less than 2 years	60
2 years to less than 3 years	40
3 years or more	20

A signed original ILOC must be provided to the Employment Standards Branch. Faxed or other copies are not acceptable. Mail the ILOC to:

Employment Standards Branch
P.O. Box 9570 Stn Prov Govt
Victoria, BC V8W 9K1

THE FOLLOWING MUST APPEAR CORRECTLY ON THE ILOC:

1. The beneficiary's name and address must read:

Minister of Finance
Employment Standards Branch
P.O. Box 9570 Stn Prov Govt
Victoria, BC V8W 9K1

2. The ILOC must be automatically renewed each year.
3. The legal name of the farm labour contractor must be correct.

Examples:
ABC Farms Ltd.
First name Last name operating as XYZ Farms

Duties of a Farm Labour Contractor

A farm labour contractor (FLC) must:

- Carry a farm labour contractor licence while carrying on licensed activities
- Display a copy of the licence on all vehicles used to transport employees
- Display wage rates at work sites and in vehicles used to transport employees
- Show the licence beforehand to everyone the FLC intends to do business with
- Immediately notify the Director of Employment Standards of any change in residential/business address
- Immediately notify the Director of any change in company directors or officers
- Provide the Director with registration numbers, licence numbers and copies of valid inspection certificates for each vehicle used to transport employees

A daily log must be kept at the work site and made available for inspection. This daily log must be retained for two years and include the following information in English:

- The name of each worker
- The name of the employer and work site location to which workers are supplied and the names of the workers who work on that work site on that day
- The dates worked by each worker
- The fruit, vegetable, berry or flower crop picked each day by each worker
- The volume or weight picked each day by each worker

A farm labour contractor who provides transportation to a job site for a farm worker and who does not provide employment for the worker must pay the worker at least the minimum hourly wage for the greater of two hours or the time spent transporting the worker from the departure point and returning to the departure point or to a place that is no further away, provided it is acceptable to the employee.

If employment is not available due to unsuitable weather conditions or for any other reason completely beyond the farm labour contractor's control, the minimum daily pay requirements above do not apply.

Licensed farm labour contractors must pay wages directly to each employee's bank account at least semi-monthly. Confirmation of deposits made to the bank accounts of individual employees must be provided to the Employment Standards Branch upon request or in accordance with a Demand for Employer Records.
