Dear :

This letter is to inform you of changes to your disability assistance case.

Your monthly income is higher than disability assistance rates. This means you will no longer receive a monthly disability assistance payment, but you will have continued access to health support and the transportation supplement. This letter explains what you will get.

Person with Disability (PWD) Designation

There is no change to your PWD designation.

Health Support

will have Medical Services Only (MSO) coverage. MSO coverage includes Medical Services Plan (MSP) premiums, PharmaCare prescription coverage, dental and optical coverage, medical equipment and supplies, and the infant formula supplement. If you currently have the tube feed supplement, this will still be available to you.

You and your family will continue to be eligible for MSO coverage as long as you live in British Columbia and meet the eligibility criteria:

- eligible for MSP Premium Assistance (if anyone in the family unit is under 65); or
- receiving a qualifying federal benefit (if everyone in the family unit is over 65); or
- receiving MSO as a result of receiving financial assistance through an Agreement with Young Adults.

Transportation Supplement will continue to receive the transportation supplement until the end of the year as either a bus pass or $52 per month, whichever you choose.

The Ministry of Social Development and Poverty Reduction operates under the authority of the Employment and Assistance Act and Regulations, and the Employment and Assistance for Persons with Disabilities Act and Regulations.
