

Summary: Child and Family Practice Review of the Death of a Youth Known to the Director in 2021

Circumstances of the Fatality

The review examined the services provided to an Indigenous youth who died. The youth and their family received services at the time of the death.

Findings

The ministry did not reassess child protection concerns prior to reuniting the youth with their family. Voluntary services were offered to the youth; however, the required assessment and planning did not occur.

Prior to the review being finalized, the involved team received further training on assessment prior to reunification and the provision of youth services.

Actions

No further actions were required to address the findings of the review.

The review was completed in November 2022.
