BC Prosecution Service Recruitment Drive Continues

Victoria – The BC Prosecution Service (BCPS) is hiring Crown Counsel to serve in the Organized and Major Crime (OMC) unit. The OMC has conduct of predominantly organized crime and gang-related prosecutions. These prosecutions are serious, complex, or lengthy cases that require special knowledge and expertise.

We are looking to hire hard-working, resilient, and fair-minded courtroom lawyers, with good common sense, solid experience, strong interpersonal skills, and practical life experience working and dealing with people from diverse groups, backgrounds, and circumstances.

Current postings include three (3) positions for mid to senior level Crown Counsel. The positions are based in Vancouver but the OMC prosecutes cases throughout BC. Travel is a requirement and flexible work arrangements are available. See here for details:

The BCPS helps protect society by independently, effectively, and fairly conducting prosecutions and appeals at all levels of court. BCPS Crown Counsel pre-approve charges and prosecute offences under the Criminal Code, provincial statutes and regulations, and federal statutes, in accordance with BCPS policies and the Crown Counsel Act. Crown Counsel litigate some of the most interesting, challenging, and important cases in BC.
