Learn About:

Some B.C. communities are preparing for incredible growth as large industries explore options for development. With development comes demand on the local housing stock and affordability. So what is the response? Hear from a local government and a major industry player on how housing challenges are being met in the District of Kitimat in Northwest B.C.

Join Online at No Cost!

The B.C. Government, in collaboration with industry and community partners is delivering a second series of webinars focused on affordable market housing options for your community. This online forum offers an opportunity to learn from your peers, share ideas and practices, and support housing affordability and economic development where you live. The webinars are free and open to everyone.
