

Burnaby Public Library

Ministry of
Children and Family
Development

Family Storytime in Sign Language and English

At Tommy Douglas

Saturdays January 6,
February 3, March 2, April 6
2:00pm – 3:00pm

Presented by Burnaby Public Library with American Sign Language (ASL) Services, Provincial Deaf and Hard of Hearing Services, Ministry of Children and Family Development.

We ask that you keep your children close and respect the personal space of others. Stay home if you're feeling sick.

Join a Deaf storyteller and a children's librarian for stories, rhythms, rhymes and crafts presented in both American Sign Language and English. Interpreters will be present.

Free drop-in for children of all ages and abilities, together with a parent or caregiver. For more information email Randi at the library: randi.robin@bpl.bc.ca

OUR BRANCHES

Bob Prittie Metrotown

6100 Willingdon Ave.
604-294-7755

McGill

4595 Albert St.
604-299-8955

Tommy Douglas

7311 Kingsway
604-522-3971

Cameron

9523 Cameron St.
604-421-5454