Learn About:

Communities throughout B.C. experiencing population growth are increasingly seeking to reinvest in existing neighbourhoods and infrastructure.

Learn how an innovative online tool called PlaceSpeak offers new options for building trust and transparency in the public engagement process, and how a developer works to balance the creation of affordable housing while respecting community interests.

Join Online at No Cost!

The B.C. Government, in collaboration with partners is delivering a second series of webinars focused on affordable market housing options for your community. This online forum offers an opportunity to learn from your peers, share ideas and practices, and support housing affordability and economic development where you live. The webinars are free and open to everyone.

After registering, details to connect to the webinar will be emailed to you 48 hours prior to the event.
