

Services for Families Experiencing Separation or Divorce

Early Resolution Registries

Family Law Process

Port Coquitlam • Surrey • Victoria

Is this for me?

The Early Resolution Process will apply when family law cases are filed in these Registry locations of the Provincial Court of B.C.:

- » Port Coquitlam
- » Surrey
- » Victoria

The Early Resolution Process applies to cases about:

- » Parenting arrangements
- » Child support
- » Contact with a child
- » Guardianship of a child
- » Spousal support
- » Property division in respect of a companion animal

Where do I start?

Contact the Family Justice Services Division (FJSD) office nearest you:

Surrey Justice Access Centre

3rd Floor – 14340 57th Avenue

Phone: 604-501-8282

Toll-free: 1-800-663-7867

(ask to be connected to 604-501-8282)

Port Coquitlam Family Justice Centre

2610 Mary Hill Rd

Phone: 604-927-2217

Toll-free: 1-888-683-3344

Victoria Justice Access Centre

225 – 850 Burdett Avenue

Phone: 250-356-7012

Toll-free: 1-800-663-7867

(ask to be connected to 250-356-7012)

Staff can help you with the following kinds of court orders:

- » Protection
- » Priority Parenting Matters
- » Relocation
- » Consent
- » Enforcement

Staff can also provide referrals and information on how to request time before a judge

For more information, For more information please visit:

www.gov.bc.ca/EarlyResolution

www.provincialcourt.bc.ca/navigating-court-case/family

What will I do?

- » Make an appointment with a qualified Family Justice Counsellor for needs assessment. The Family Justice Counsellor will also give you information and referrals.
- » Complete a Parenting After Separation course.
- » Participate in at least one consensual dispute resolution session (unless exempted). At this session, you can try to resolve your issues and improve communication.

If you go to court, you will start with a Family Management Conference.

Services for Families Experiencing Separation or Divorce

Early Resolution Registries

Family Law Process

Port Coquitlam • Surrey • Victoria

Is this for me?

The Early Resolution Process will apply when family law cases are filed in these Registry locations of the Provincial Court of B.C.:

- » Port Coquitlam
- » Surrey
- » Victoria

The Early Resolution Process applies to cases about:

- » Parenting arrangements
- » Child support
- » Contact with a child
- » Guardianship of a child
- » Spousal support
- » Property division in respect of a companion animal

Where do I start?

Contact the Family Justice Services Division (FJSD) office nearest you:

Surrey Justice Access Centre

3rd Floor – 14340 57th Avenue

Phone: 604-501-8282

Toll-free: 1-800-663-7867

(ask to be connected to 604-501-8282)

Port Coquitlam Family Justice Centre

2610 Mary Hill Rd

Phone: 604-927-2217

Toll-free: 1-888-683-3344

Victoria Justice Access Centre

225 – 850 Burdett Avenue

Phone: 250-356-7012

Toll-free: 1-800-663-7867

(ask to be connected to 250-356-7012)

Staff can help you with the following kinds of court orders:

- » Protection
- » Priority Parenting Matters
- » Relocation
- » Consent
- » Enforcement

Staff can also provide referrals and information on how to request time before a judge

For more information, For more information please visit:

[www.gov.bc.ca/
EarlyResolution](http://www.gov.bc.ca/EarlyResolution)

[www.provincialcourt.bc.ca/
navigating-court-case/family](http://www.provincialcourt.bc.ca/navigating-court-case/family)

What will I do?

- » Make an appointment with a qualified Family Justice Counsellor for needs assessment. The Family Justice Counsellor will also give you information and referrals.

- » Complete a Parenting After Separation course.
- » Participate in at least one consensual dispute resolution session (unless exempted). At this session, you can try to resolve your issues and improve communication.

If you go to court, you will start with a Family Management Conference.