A witness must be the holder of a recognized office in the community, such as a Magistrate, Notary, Commissioner for Taking Affidavits, police officer, local postmaster, bank manager, religious representative, government official, or municipal officer, and must be satisfied as to the correct identity of the parents before signing this form. The Issuer of Marriage Licences is empowered to make such further inquiries as may be considered necessary.

If one parent is deceased, the facts should be recorded in the space provided for consent, and signed by the living parent; e.g., "Father deceased, May 29, 2002, Vancouver, (signed) Mary J. Brown, mother." In other cases where sole guardianship is claimed by one parent, documentary evidence of guardianship is required.

NOTE: The signature of a witness must appear beside each parent's signature, even if the same person witnesses both signatures.
