The Congratulatory Messages Program is pleased to coordinate congratulatory messages for significant birthdays and wedding anniversaries on behalf of residents of British Columbia. While we are pleased to accept requests which arrive late, we cannot guarantee that the messages will be sent by the celebration date. Requests will be accepted 12 months in advance of the occasion date or no more than 12 months after occasion date. Requests for messages from The Queen will be accepted 6 months in advance of the occasion date or backdated up to 6 months. B.C. residents are eligible to receive messages from the officials listed on the second page.

REQUIRED INFORMATION

Please read carefully to ensure your request is processed.

- ▶ In the celebrant information section, please write the celebrant's name as you would like it to appear on the congratulatory message (prefix is mandatory for messages from the Governor General). Space is limited to 36 characters (including spaces).
- ▶ Celebrant's home address (this is required even if you would like the message sent to an alternate address).
- ▶ Delivery address is optional and if this section is blank, the message(s) will be mailed directly to celebrant.
- ▶ Requestor name, phone and email address. We may contact you to clarify message details.
- ▶ Complete the Declaration at the bottom of the application form.
