

BC Services Card

One card. Many services.

Have you got yours yet? The BC Services Card replaces your health CareCard. You will be expected to show a valid BC Services Card when you access health-care services after February 2018. It's easy to get — just go to your local ICBC driver licensing office. You can also choose to combine it with your driver's licence for one convenient government ID.

To learn more, visit gov.bc.ca/bcservicescard

