

What is a service club?

Service clubs are different from many non-profit organizations because, as a part of their charitable work, they raise money for other organizations.

Examples of service clubs

Examples of service clubs under section 3.5, include, but are not limited to, the following:

- Elks Canada and Canadian Royal Purple
- Elves Club
- Kinsmen Club, Kinette Club and Kin Clubs
- Kiwanis Club
- Knights of Columbus and Columbiettes
- Lions Club, Lioness Clubs and Leo Clubs
- Optimist Club
- Rotary Club
- Royal Canadian Legion, Ladies' Auxiliary and Youth Auxiliary
- Shriners Club
- Soroptimist Club
- Zonta Club

Service clubs are required to have a minimum of 10 voting members as they are the only recipients of Community Gaming Grants that may redistribute funding within their community through a donations program.
