

British Columbia
Farm Industry Review Board

2011/12 – 2013/14
Strategic Plan Summary

Carried forward to: 2014/15

ADDENDUM

The BC Farm Industry Review Board (BCFIRB) reviewed and assessed the 2011/12-2013/14 Strategic Plan in light of its' present day mandates, vision, goals and objectives. Following the review, BCFIRB members confirmed the continued application of the Strategic Plan to 2014/15 with revisions to reflect BCFIRB's new mandate under the Protection of Cruelty to Animals Act as follows:

Mandates of the British Columbia Farm Industry Review Board

(Page 2)

Prevention of Cruelty to Animals Act

- hear appeals related to certain animal custody and cost decisions of the BC Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals

This mandate will be managed in accordance with:

Goal 3: Effective, fair and independent resolution of inquiries and disputes

Objective 3.1: Ensure issues and disputes arising within the British Columbia Farm Industry Review Board's jurisdiction are resolved in a fair and timely manner applies, along with its identified strategies, actions and outcomes. BCFIRB will report performance for this new mandate as part of its Annual Service Plan Report which will be posted to BCFIRB's website.

We look forward to continuing to implement and report on our strategic plan with our partners in the agriculture and animal welfare sectors. As a tribunal, BCFIRB continues to build on processes that support good governance and effective, fair, and independent decision making in all its mandates.

On the behalf of BCFIRB,

2011/12 – 2013/14 STRATEGIC PLAN

It is my pleasure to present the British Columbia Farm Industry Review Board's 2011/12-2013/14 Strategic Plan. This plan establishes our key goals and will guide our activities over the next three years.

Since the early 1920's the Legislature has taken the view that if there is a regulated marketing system, a board independent of government to supervise marketing boards and commissions is necessary. The courts have also expressly noted that our board's role in the regulated marketing sector is to protect the public interest. With respect to our farm practices role, the courts have similarly found that our purpose is to find "balance" between the needs of farmers and the needs of neighbors.

Social, environmental, and economic forces have a significant influence on agriculture. In preparing our plan, we concluded that those key issues originally identified in our 2008/09 – 2010/11 Strategic Plan continue as important factors for agriculture today and into the future.

Stemming from these key influences on agriculture, this Strategic Plan explains how BCFIRB will lead in accountability, governance, and proactive resolution of issues within regulated marketing and farm practices in BC. It considers the imperatives of managing change and promoting innovation in response to both risks and opportunities.

We look forward to sharing and implementing our strategic plan with B.C.'s regulated marketing boards and commissions, and our partners throughout the agri-food sector. Working cooperatively, we can anticipate effective outcomes as a result of adopting a principles-based regulatory framework and supporting improved governance.

Chair

Introduction to the Strategic Plan

This strategic plan sets out the British Columbia Farm Industry Review Board's (BCFIRB) goals, strategies and deliverables for the next three years.

Mandates of the British Columbia Farm Industry Review Board

Natural Products Marketing (BC) Act

- general supervision of regulated marketing boards and commissions (commodity boards)
- hear appeals from persons aggrieved by or dissatisfied with orders, decisions or determinations of commodity boards
- signatory to Federal-Provincial Agreements for supply-managed commodities

Farm Practices Protection (Right to Farm) Act

- hear complaints from persons aggrieved by odour, noise, dust or other disturbances arising from farm operations
- may also study and report generally on farm practices in the province

Agricultural Produce Grading Act

- hear appeals from ministerial refusing, suspending, revoking or not renewing grading licenses

BCFIRB is accountable to government for its administrative operations, but is independent of government in its decision-making. As an administrative tribunal, BCFIRB ensures that the public interest is served and protected within its mandate.

Strategic Context

Agriculture

As part of the strategic planning process, BCFIRB reviewed its mandates in view of the challenges and opportunities within agriculture in British Columbia. It was concluded that the challenges and opportunities originally identified in the 2008/09-2010/11 Strategic Plan continue to be relevant. BCFIRB needs to meet these challenges and to take advantage of opportunities while remaining cognizant of risk and change management.
