Table 2.3 Communication and Consultation

	Indicator	In place/ In progress/ To be started	Comments/Examples
Communication	Active industry communication plan or strategy	In place	A monthly newsletter is prepared and emailed to members, and posted on the website: https://bcbhcc.com/category/newsletters/ Correspondence, decisions, actions of and between the Commission and stakeholders are posted online. Rare exceptions are provided in instances of sensitive information such as competitiveness or personally identifiable information. To aid in stakeholders finding, searching and general readability, our website was updated with a new look in 2021: https://bcbhcc.com/ A separate website, found through our Links page, was created to coalesce all documents relating to the Pricing Appeal: https://bcchickensectorpricingreview.com/
	Crisis management communication plan or strategy	In place	Chair and senior staff have media training. There is a coordinated approach between the four feather boards, BCPA and EOC, as the situation dictates. A reorganization on the 'producer-side' of the website occurred with the many communications relating to HPAI in 2022. Daily updates were made during acute periods and specific reachouts by staff to producers hit or otherwise affected were made.
Consultation	Consultation, as appropriate and meaningful, with stakeholders (e.g., producers, supply chain, BCFIRB, Ministry of Agriculture, national agencies) to address sound marketing policy and public interest questions.	In place	Consultations take place through the process of quarterly large and small group producer meetings, monthly hatchery meetings, PPAC meetings approximately every eight weeks, Canadian Hatching Egg Producers through our member rep, BCFIRB staff and other stakeholders as appropriate (e.g., Strategic Plan input). An example is the establishment of a separate BC Chicken Marketing Board - BC Broiler Hatching Egg Commission Review of BC Chicken Sector Pricing website (https://bcchickensectorpricingreview.com/) that is also available through our Links page (https://bcbhcc.com/links/) and Appeals & Reviews page (https://bcbhcc.com/appeals/)
	Stakeholder feed back actioned where appropriate (e.g., policy or program development)	In place	The Commission ensures consultation is meaningful through clear communication of timelines and key decision dates, circulating Work Action Plans, and outlining the key stakeholders pertaining to those Work Action Plans so they directly receive correspondence on that specific policy or program.
Evaluation	Avenue for regular stakeholder feedback on board operations, processes, policies and communications.	In place	Stakeholder feedback is received on specific policies or programs by direct solicitation, or by phone, email or in-person consultations whether through a regular scheduled meeting or appointment requests. A significant input process is provided to stakeholders during the strategic planning session.
