Parliamentary Secretary for Gender Equity

Grace Lore, Victoria-Beacon Hill

Grace Lore was elected as the MLA for Victoria-Beacon Hill in 2020.

She has been a dedicated anti-violence advocate, university instructor and community organizer.

Before the election, she sat on the Fernwood, North Park, and Quadra Village Neighbourhood Planning Group. She was on the national advisory panel for the Canadian Women’s Foundation and an Affordable Fernwood organizer. She has worked closely with the Victoria Sexual Assault Centre and other anti-violence organizations to support inclusive, accessible, and survivor-centred sexual assault response.

At the University of Victoria, she taught Canadian politics, gender and politics, and research methods. Her research has focused on social media harassment and online violence.

Grace resides in Victoria with her partner and two young children.
