

What is the definition of dependant(s)?

In relation to another person, means anyone who resides with the person and who is the spouse of the other person, or is a dependent child of the person, or indicates a parental role for the person's dependent child.

Note: Adults are not considered to be dependants of each other on the sole basis of demonstrating a parental role towards the same child.