June 19, 2018

null
null
null, BC null

Dear :

BC Employment and Assistance is an income- and asset-based program, and all income and assets, and/or changes in circumstances must be declared on a monthly basis. If you do not accurately declare all changes, you may receive assistance for which you are not eligible.

Receiving assistance for which you are not eligible is considered an overpayment, which you are responsible to repay. In addition to your obligation to repay the overpayment, you may be subject to a sanction in accordance with Section 15.1 of the Employment and Assistance Act for inaccurate or incomplete reporting, which would result in your monthly assistance being reduced.

On , you were notified that an overpayment may have occurred on your file and were given the opportunity to provide information related to the potential overpayment. The ministry reviewed the overpayment with you.

The ministry has concluded that you received assistance for which you were ineligible (an overpayment). This overpayment occurred because of inaccurate or incomplete reporting. It was determined that you did not take the necessary steps to ensure accuracy and completeness when reporting your on your Monthly Report form (HR0081). As a result, a sanction will be applied to your file.

As this is the occurrence on your file, a monthly reduction of $25 each month will be imposed for the next months in accordance with Section 32.1 of the Employment and Assistance Regulation. This reduction to your assistance rate will begin on your assistance payment.

You have the right to request a reconsideration of this decision. To request a reconsideration, you must submit a completed Request for Reconsideration form to a ministry or government agent's office within 20 business days from the date you are notified of the decision. Please refer to the enclosed Reconsideration and Appeals brochure for further details.

The Ministry of Social Development and Poverty Reduction operates under the authority of the Employment and Assistance Act and Regulations, and the Employment and Assistance for Persons with Disabilities Act and Regulations.
If you wish to request a reconsideration form, or to discuss the decision, you may contact me at 250-217-1117.

Sincerely,

Enclosures: [Reconsideration and Appeals brochure]

Employment and Assistance Act
Consequences for providing inaccurate or incomplete information
15.1 (1) The minister may take action under subsection (2) if the minister determines that

(a) income assistance, hardship assistance or a supplement was provided to or for a family unit that was not eligible for it,

(b) the income assistance, hardship assistance or supplement was provided to or for the family unit on the basis of inaccurate or incomplete information provided by the applicant or recipient

(i) under section 10 (1) (e) [information and verification], or
(ii) in a report under section 11 (1) [reporting obligations], and

(c) in the minister’s opinion the applicant or recipient failed to take the necessary steps to ensure the accuracy or completeness of the information before providing it to the minister.

(2) In the circumstances described in subsection (1), the minister may reduce the income assistance or hardship assistance provided to or for the family unit by the prescribed amount for the prescribed period.

(3) The periods prescribed for the purposes of subsection (2) may vary with the number of determinations made under subsection (1) in relation to a family unit.

(4) If a family unit that is subject to a reduction under section 14.1 of the Employment and Assistance for Persons with Disabilities Act qualifies for income assistance or hardship assistance under this Act before the period prescribed for the purposes of section 14.1 (2) of that Act expires, the reduction is deemed to have been imposed under subsection (2) of this section.

(B.C.: Reg. 193/2006)
Employment and Assistance Regulation
Consequences for providing inaccurate or incomplete information

32.1 If the minister determines under section 15.1 (1) of the Act that the minister may take action under section 15.1 (2) of the Act in relation to a family unit, the income assistance or hardship assistance provided to or for the family unit may be reduced by $25 for

(a) a first determination, for the next 3 calendar months for which income assistance or hardship assistance is provided to or for the family unit, starting with the first calendar month

(i) following the calendar month in which the minister made the determination, and

(ii) for which income assistance or hardship assistance is provided to or for the family unit,

(b) a second determination, for the next 6 calendar months for which income assistance or hardship assistance is provided to or for the family unit, starting with the first calendar month

(i) following the calendar month in which the minister made the determination, and

(ii) for which income assistance or hardship assistance is provided to or for the family unit,

(c) a third or subsequent determination, for the next 12 calendar months for which income assistance or hardship assistance is provided to or for the family unit, starting with the first calendar month

(i) following the calendar month in which the minister made the determination, and

(ii) for which income assistance or hardship assistance is provided to or for the family unit.

(BC Reg. 193/2006)