Management's Report

Management's Responsibility for the Financial Statements

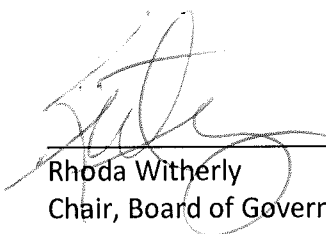

The financial statements have been prepared by management in accordance with Canadian public sector accounting standards and the integrity and objectivity of these statements are management's responsibility. Management is also responsible for all of the notes to the financial statements and schedules, and for ensuring that this information is consistent, where appropriate, with the information contained in the financial statements.

Management is also responsible for implementing and maintaining a system of internal controls to provide reasonable assurance that reliable financial information is produced.

The Board of Governors is responsible for ensuring that management fulfills its responsibilities for financial reporting and internal control and exercises these responsibilities through the Board. The Board reviews internal financial statements on a quarterly basis and external audited financial statements yearly.

The external auditors, Vohora & Company Chartered Accountants LLP, conduct an independent examination, in accordance with Canadian auditing standards, and express their opinion on the financial statements. The external auditors have full and free access to financial management of Northwest Community College and meet when required.

Independent Auditor's Report

To the Board of Governors of Northwest Community College,

We have audited the accompanying financial statements of Northwest Community College, which comprise the statements of financial position as at March 31, 2014 and March 31, 2013 and the statements of operations, change in net financial debt and cash flows for the years ended March 31, 2014 and March 31, 2013, and a summary of significant accounting policies and other explanatory information.

Management's Responsibility for the Financial Statements

Management is responsible for the preparation of these financial statements in accordance with section 23.1 of the Budget Transparency and Accountability Act of the Province of British Columbia, and for such internal control as management determines is necessary to enable the preparation of financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

Auditor's Responsibility

Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on our audits. We conducted our audits in accordance with Canadian generally accepted auditing standards. Those standards require that we comply with ethical requirements and plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free from material misstatement.

An audit involves performing procedures to obtain audit evidence about the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. The procedures selected depend on the auditor's judgment, including the assessment of the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error. In making those risk assessments, the auditor considers internal control relevant to the entity's preparation and fair presentation of the financial statements in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the entity's internal control. An audit of accounting estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall presentation of the financial statements.

We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained in our audits is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinion.

Opinion

In our opinion, the statements of financial position of Northwest Community College as at March 31, 2014 and March 31, 2013 and the statements of operations, change in net financial debt and cash flows for the years ended March 31, 2014 and March 31, 2013 are prepared, in all material respects, in accordance with section 23.1 of the Budget Transparency and Accountability Act of the Province of British Columbia.

Emphasis of Matter

We draw attention to Note 2(a) to the financial statements which describes the basis of accounting used in the preparation of these financial statements and the significant difference between the basis of accounting and Canadian Public Sector Accounting Standards. Our opinion is not qualified in respect of this matter.

NORTHWEST COMMUNITY COLLEGE

Notes to Financial Statements

Year ended March 31, 2014, with comparative figures for 2013

1. Authority and Purpose

Northwest Community College (the "College") is a post-secondary educational institution incorporated under the provisions of the College and Institute Act of British Columbia. The College is a not-for-profit entity governed by a Board of Governors and is funded principally by the provincial government of British Columbia through the Ministry of Advanced Education, Training and Technology. The College is a registered charity and is therefore exempt from income taxes under section 149 of the Income Tax Act.

2. Summary of significant accounting policies

(a) Basis of accounting:

In 2010, directive was provided by the Province of British Columbia Treasury Board ("Treasury Board") through Government Organization Accounting Standards Regulation 257/2010 requiring all tax-payer supported organizations in the Schools, Universities, Colleges and Hospitals sectors to adopt Public Sector Accounting Board (PSAB) standards of the Canadian Institute of Chartered Accountants (CICA) without any PS4200 elections from their first fiscal year commencing after January 1, 2012.

In March 2011, PSAB released a new Public Sector Accounting Standard PS 3410 "Government Transfers". In November 2011, Treasury Board provided a directive through Restricted Contributions Regulation 198/2011 providing direction for the reporting of restricted contributions whether they are received or receivable by the College before or after this regulation was in effect. The Treasury Board direction on the accounting treatment of restricted contributions is as described in Note 2(h)(i) and 2(h)(ii).

Further, the Office of the Comptroller General ("OCG") provided direction in memorandum ref. 250955 on the treatment of endowment funds, financial instruments, pension plans and employee future benefits. The OCG direction requires:

- (i) The College to treat endowment contributions as described in Note 2(h)(iii);
- (ii) The College to implement PS 3450 Financial Instrument as at April 1, 2012; and
- (iii) The College to apply the discount rate for pension plans and/or employee future benefits at the next valuation date or within three years of transition to PSAB.

These financial statements have been prepared in accordance with the financial reporting framework described above.

Year ended March 31, 2014, with comparative figures for 2013

2. Summary of significant accounting policies (continued)

The basis of accounting that the College has adopted is different from PSAS with respect to the timing of revenue recognition for government transfers. If the College had recorded government transfers under PSAS rather than the accounting policy described in note 2(h)(i), capital contributions recognized as revenue and the annual surplus for the year ended March 31, 2014 would have increased (decreased) by ($1,226) (March 31, 2013 – $1,346). Consequentially, as at March 31, 2014, deferred capital contributions used to purchase tangible capital assets would have decreased and the accumulated surplus would have increased by $30,455 (March 31, 2013 – $31,682). Under PSAS, the total cash flows from operating, financing, and capital transactions for the years ended March 31, 2014 and 2013 would have been the same as reported in these financial statements.

Had the College adopted PSAS together with the not-for-profit provisions, another alternative basis of accounting permitted under Canadian generally accepted accounting principles, capital contributions recognized as revenue and the annual surplus for each year would have been the same as reported in these financial statements. Further, deferred capital contributions used to purchase tangible capital assets would have been the same as reported in these financial statements.

(b) Cash and cash equivalents

Cash and cash equivalents include term deposits with a term to maturity of three months or less at the date of purchase.

(c) Financial instruments

Financial instruments are classified into two categories: fair value or cost.

(i) Fair value category: Portfolio instruments that are quoted in an active market and derivative instruments are reflected at fair value as at the reporting date. Other financial instruments which the College has designated to be recorded at fair value include cash and cash equivalents. Sales and purchases of investments are recorded on the trade date. Transaction costs related to the acquisition of investments is recorded as an expense. Unrealized gains and losses on financial assets are recognized in the Statement of Remeasurement Gains and Losses until such time that the financial asset is derecognized due to disposal or impairment. At the time of derecognition, the related realized gains and losses are recognized in the Statement of Operations and Accumulated Surplus and related balances reversed from the Statement of Remeasurement Gains and Losses.

Year ended March 31, 2014, with comparative figures for 2013

(c) Financial instruments (continued)

- (ii) Cost category: Gains and losses are recognized in the Statement of Operations and Accumulated Surplus when the financial asset is derecognized due to disposal or impairment. Sales and purchases of investments are recorded on the trade date. Transaction costs related to the acquisition of investments is included in the cost of the related investments.

Amounts receivable are measured at amortized cost using the effective interest method. Accounts payable and accrued liabilities are measured at amortized cost using the effective interest method. Any gains, losses or interest expense is recorded in the annual deficit depending on the nature of the financial liability that gave rise to the gain, loss or expense.

(d) Short-term investments

Short term investments are comprised of money market securities and other investments with maturities that are capable of prompt liquidation. Short-term investments are cashable on demand and are recorded at cost based on the transaction price on the trade date. All interest income, gains and losses are recognized in the period in which they arise.

(e) Non-financial assets

Non-financial assets are not available to discharge existing liabilities and are held for use in the provision of services. They have useful lives extending beyond the current year and are not intended for sale in the ordinary course of operations.

(i) Tangible capital assets

Tangible capital assets are recorded at cost, which includes amounts that are directly attributable to acquisition, construction, development or betterment of the asset. Interest is capitalized whenever external debt is issued to finance the construction of tangible capital assets. The cost, less residual value, of the tangible capital assets, excluding land, are amortized on a straight line basis over their estimated useful lives shown below. Land is not amortized as it is deemed to have a permanent value:

Site improvements	10 years
Buildings
- Wood frame	20 years
- Concrete/steel	40 years
Furniture and equipment	5 years
Computer equipment	4 years
Library acquisitions	10 years
Landscaping	15 years

(e) Non-financial assets (continued)

Assets under construction are not amortized until the asset is available for productive use.

Tangible capital assets are written down when conditions indicate that they no longer contribute to the College's ability to provide goods and services, or when the value of future economic benefits associated with the tangible capital assets are less than their net book value.

Contributed tangible capital assets are recorded at their fair value on the date of contribution. When fair value of a contributed asset cannot be reliably determined, the asset is recorded at nominal value.

(ii) Works of art and historic assets

Works of art and historic assets are not recorded as assets in these financial statements.

(iii) Leased tangible capital assets

Leases which transfer substantially all of the benefits and risks incidental to ownership of property are accounted for as leased tangible capital assets. All other leases are accounted for as operating leases and the related payments are charged to expenses as incurred.

(iv) Inventories held for use

Inventories held for use are recorded at the lower of cost and replacement cost.

Cost includes the original purchase cost, plus shipping and applicable duties. Replacement cost is the estimated current price to replace the items.

2. Summary of significant accounting policies (continued)

(f) Accrued employee entitlements

(i) Defined contribution plans

The College and its employees contribute to the College Pension Plan and Municipal Pension Plan, jointly trustee pension plans. The board of trustees for these plans represent plan members and employers and are responsible for the management of the pension plan including investment of the assets and administration of benefits. The pension plans are multi-employer contributory pension plans. Basic pension benefits provided are based on a formula. The College Pension Plan has about 13,000 active members from college senior administration and instructional staff and approximately 6,000 retired members. The Municipal Pension Plan has about 179,000 active members, with approximately 5,700 from colleges.

Defined contribution plan accounting is applied to the plan as the plan exposes the participating entities to actuarial risks associated with the current and former employees of other entities, with the result that there is no consistent and reliable basis for allocating the obligation, plan assets and cost to individual entities participating in the plan.

(ii) Severance benefits

Severance benefits are also available to the College's employees. The costs of these benefits are actuarially determined based on service and best estimates of retirement ages and expected future salary and wage increases. The obligation under these benefit plans are accrued based on projected benefits as the employees render services necessary to earn the future benefits. Actuarial gains and losses are amortized over the expected average remaining service life of the employees.

(iii) Short-term employee benefits

Short-term employee benefit obligations are measured on an undiscounted basis and are expensed as the related service is provided.

The College's short-term employee benefits include accrued vacation, banked overtime and executive benefit plan payments. Employees of the College do not accumulate sick leave and therefore there is no liability recognized.

(g) Payroll liabilities

Payroll liabilities are measured on an undiscounted basis and are expensed as the related service is provided.

The College's payroll liabilities include wages and payroll remittance accruals, WCB payable, payments to the College and Municipal Pension Plans, and other short-term payroll accruals.

2. Summary of significant accounting policies (continued)

(h) Revenue recognition

Tuition and student fees are reported as revenues over the duration of the course or school year. Tuition fees are deferred for the portion of the courses held in the next fiscal year. The sale of goods and services are reported as revenue at the time the services are provided or the products are delivered, and collection is reasonably assured.

Unrestricted donations and grants are recorded as revenue when receivable if the amounts can be estimated and collection is reasonably assured. Pledges from donors are recorded as revenue when payment is received by the College or the transfer of property is completed.

Restricted donations and grants are reported as revenue depending on the nature of the restrictions on the use of the funds by the contributors as follows:

- (i) Contributions for the purpose of acquiring or developing a depreciable tangible capital asset or in the form of a depreciable tangible capital asset, in each case for use in providing services are recorded and referred to as deferred capital contributions and recognized in revenue at the same rate that amortization of the tangible capital asset is recorded. The reduction of the deferred capital contributions and the recognition of the revenue are accounted for in the fiscal period during which the tangible capital asset is used to provide services.
- (ii) Contributions restricted for specific purposes other than for those to be held in perpetuity or the acquisition or development of a depreciable tangible capital asset are recorded as deferred contributions and recognized in revenue in the year in which the stipulation or restriction on the contribution have been met.
- (iii) Contributions restricted to be retained in perpetuity, allowing only the investment income earned thereon to be spent, are recorded as direct increases to accumulated surplus for the portion to be held in perpetuity and as deferred contributions for any restricted investment income earned thereon.

Investment income includes interest recorded on an accrual basis and dividends recorded as declared, realized gains and losses on the sale of investments, and write-downs on investments where the loss in value is determined to be other-than-temporary.

Year ended March 31, 2014, with comparative figures for 2013

2. Summary of significant accounting policies (continued)

(i) Use of estimates

The preparation of the financial statements in accordance with Canadian public sector accounting standards requires management to make estimates and assumptions. These estimates and assumptions affect the reported amounts of assets, liabilities, and related disclosures. Key areas where management has made estimates and assumptions include those related to the determination of the fair value of financial instruments, useful life of tangible capital assets, and the present value of employee future benefits and commitments. Where actual results differ from these estimates and assumptions, the impact will be recorded in future periods when the difference becomes known.

(j) Asset retirement obligation

The College recognizes asset retirement obligations in the period in which it incurs a legal obligation associated with the retirement of a tangible long-lived asset, including leased premises resulting from the acquisition, construction, development, and/or normal use of the asset. The fair value of the asset retirement cost is capitalized as part of the carrying value of the related long-lived asset and is amortized over the life of the asset. The liability may be changed to reflect the passage of time and changes in the fair value assessment of the retirement obligation.

(k) Foreign currency translation

The College's functional currency is the Canadian dollar. Transactions in foreign currencies are translated into Canadian dollars at the exchange rate in effect on the transaction date. Monetary assets and liabilities denominated in foreign currencies and non-monetary assets and liabilities which were designated in the fair value category under the financial instrument standard are reflected in the financial statements in equivalent Canadian dollars at the exchange rate in effect on the balance sheet date. Any gain or loss resulting from a change in rates between the transaction date and the settlement date or balance sheet date is recognized in the Statement of remeasurement gains and losses. In the period of settlement, the related cumulative remeasurement gain/loss is reversed in the Statement of remeasurement gains and losses and the exchange gain or loss in relation to the exchange rate at the date of the item's initial recognition is recognized in the Statement of operations.

(l) Budget figures

Budget figures have been provided for comparative purposes and have been derived from the College's Fiscal 2013/2014 Budget approved by the Board of Governors of the College on May 24, 2013. The budget is reflected in the Statement of Operations and Accumulated Surplus and the Statement of Changes in Net Financial Assets.

Budget figures have not been audited, and are presented only for information purposes.

(m) Future accounting standards

In June 2010, PSAB issued PS 3260, Liability for Contaminated Sites. PS 3260 establishes recognition, measurement and disclosure standards for liabilities relating to contaminated sites of governments. The main features of the standard are as follows:

- § A liability should be recognized when contamination exceeds an accepted environmental standard and the entity is directly responsible, or accepts responsibility for the damage.
- § A liability should be measured at the entity's best estimate of the costs directly attributable to remediation of the contamination; and
- § Outstanding site assessments do not negate the requirement to assess whether a liability exists.

Management is assessing the impact of PS 3260, which will be adopted for fiscal year ending March 31, 2015.

5. Accumulated surplus

Previously the College recorded severance benefits, which included retirement allowance benefits for BCGEU instructors and support staff as well as sick leave cash-out benefits for CUPE members, according to their actuary valuation report dated March 31, 2003. On March 31, 2009, the College obtained another actuary valuation report but did not adjust their severance benefits based on the report provided as they believed it did not represent the value specific to the College. On December 19, 2013, the College obtained another actuary valuation report and with results consistent to that of the March 31, 2009 valuation, they have determined that their severance benefits have actually been understated going back to 2009. A prior period adjustment to accumulated surplus was made to recognize the liability and expense related to severance benefits based on the actuary valuation report. This resulted in the following adjustments:

- An increase to the liability for severance benefits at April 1, 2012 of $204,490
- An increase in the liability of $2,000 at March 31, 2013

The results of these adjustments on the financial statements are as follows:

Statement of financial position – April 1, 2012

	March 31, 2012	Adjustment	April 1, 2012
Accrued employee entitlements	$ 1,248	$ 204	$ 1,452

(a) Financial assets and liabilities recorded at fair value are comprised of the following:

	2014	2013
Financial assets designated to fair value category
Cash and cash equivalents	$ 8,556	$ 11,996

The fair value of cash and cash equivalents approximate their carrying values, unless otherwise noted.

(b) Financial assets and liabilities recorded at cost / amortized cost are comprised of the following:

	2014	2013
Accounts receivable	$ 1,496	$ 1,581
Accounts payable and accrued liabilities	1,889	3,642
Accrued employee entitlements	1,535	1,454

8. Accrued employee entitlements

Accrued employee entitlements are comprised of the following:

	2014	2013
Accrued vacation	$ 559	$ 486
Accrued overtime	59	43
Severance benefits (a)	747	766
Executive benefits	170	159
Balance, end of year	$ 1,535	$ 1,454

(a) Severance benefits:

The College provides severance benefits to its eligible employees based on eligibility, years of service and final salary. These benefits include retirement allowance benefits for BCGEU instructors and support staff and sick leave and cash-out benefits for CUPE members. The liability associated with these benefits is calculated based on the present value of expected future payments pro-rated for services. A breakdown of the severance benefits, measured as at March 31, is as follows:

	2014	2013
Severance benefits – union	$ 587	$ 609
Severance benefits – non-union	160	154
Severance benefits	$ 747	$ 763

The fair value has been determined using a discounted cash flow analysis with an appropriate discount factor, which at March 31, 2014 was determined to be 4.0% (2013 – 3.75%).

8. Accrued employee entitlements (continued)

	2014	2013
Accrued benefit liability		(restated)
Balance, beginning of year	$ 609	$ 607
Current service cost	41	45
Interest cost	22	22
Benefits paid	(85)	(65)
Balance, end of year	$ 587	$ 609

An actuarial valuation for these benefits was performed to determine the College's accrued benefit obligation as at March 31, 2014. The difference between the actuarially determined accrued benefit obligation of $625 and the accrued benefit liability of $587 is an unamortized actuarial loss of $38. The actuarial loss is amortized over a period equal to the employees' average remaining service lifetime of 10 years.

(a) Assets under construction

Assets under construction having a value of $ Nil (2013 - $ Nil) have not been amortized. Amortization of these assets will commence when the asset is put into service.

(b) Works of art and historical treasures

The Institution manages and controls various works of art and non-operational historical cultural assets including buildings, artifacts, paintings and sculptures located at the College sites and public display areas. These assets are not recorded as tangible capital assets and are not amortized.

(c) Write-down of tangible capital assets

There was no write-down of tangible capital assets during the year (2013 - $ Nil).

14. Financial risk management

The College has exposure to the following risks from its use of financial instruments: credit risk, market risk and liquidity risk.

The Board of Governors ensures that the College has identified its major risks and ensures that management monitors and controls them.

(a) Credit risk

Credit risk is the risk of financial loss to the College if a customer or counterparty to a financial instrument fails to meet its contractual obligations. Such risks arise principally from certain financial assets held by the College consisting of cash and accounts receivable.

The College manages its credit risk by reviewing the credit history of new customers before extending credit and by conducting regular reviews of its existing customer's credit performance. An allowance for doubtful accounts is established based upon factors surrounding the credit risk of specific accounts, historical trends and other information. The College has a significant number of customers which minimizes the concentration of credit risk.

(b) Market risk

Market risk is the risk that changes in market prices, such as interest rates, will affect the College's income. The objective of market risk management is to control market risk exposures within acceptable parameters while optimizing the return on risk.

Interest rate risk is the risk that the fair value of future cash flows of a financial instrument will fluctuate because of changes in the market interest rates.

It is management's opinion that the College is not exposed to significant market or interest rate risk arising from its financial instruments.

14. Financial risk management (continued)

(c) Liquidity risk

Liquidity risk is the risk that the College will not be able to meet its financial obligations as they become due.

The College manages liquidity risk by continually monitoring actual and forecasted cash flows from operations and anticipated investing and financing activities to ensure, as far as possible, that it will always have sufficient liquidity to meet its liabilities when due, under both normal and stressed conditions, without incurring unacceptable losses or risking damage to the College's reputation.

(d) Fair value of financial instruments

Generally accepted accounting principles define the fair value of a financial instrument as the amount at which the instrument could be exchanged in a current transaction between willing parties. The College uses the following methods and assumptions to estimate the fair value of each class of financial instruments for which the carrying amounts are included in the Statement of Financial Position under the following captions:

- Cash and cash equivalents, accounts receivable and accounts payables and accrued liabilities - the carrying amounts approximate fair value because of the short maturity of these instruments.

The financial instruments measured at fair value held within each investment are classified according to a hierarchy which includes three levels, reflecting the reliability of the inputs involved in the fair value determination. The different levels are defined as follows:

- Level 1: quoted prices (unadjusted) in active markets for identical assets or liabilities
- Level 2: inputs other than quoted prices included within Level 1 that are observable for the asset or liability, either directly (i.e. as prices) or indirectly (i.e. derived from prices)
- Level 3: inputs for the asset or liability that are not based on observable market data (unobservable inputs).

The College's instruments are all considered to be level 1 financial instruments for which the fair value is determined based on quoted prices in active markets. Changes in fair valuation methods or in the availability of market observable inputs may result in a transfer between levels. During the year there were no significant transfers of securities between the different levels.

18. Contingent liabilities

The College may, from time to time, be involved in legal proceedings, claims, and litigation that arise in the normal course of business. In the event that any such claims or litigation are resolved against the College, such outcomes or resolutions could have a material effect on the business, financial condition, or results of operations of the College. At March 31, 2014, the College has the following claims outstanding:

- 1) Course Content – A claim has been made against the College from a union, claiming the College failed to adequately consult the education council of course content and program planning (which is a requirement under Section 23 of the Act). The amount of the claim is unknown at this time but it is not expected to be significant.
- 2) Intersession Grievance – An Association has filed a grievance against the College for offering a course by intersession. The potential liability and damages related to this grievance are undeterminable at this time.
- 3) Refusal to Recall – An Association has filed a grievance with respect to the College's alleged failure to recall an employee. The potential liability and damages related to this grievance are undeterminable at this time.
