

Application form: Pacific Leaders Scholarships for Public Service Employees

The BC Public Service recognizes and encourages high achievement. Dedicated employees can receive scholarship support to build rewarding careers. If approved, employees may access up to a maximum of:

- $5,000 per year for certificate, diploma and undergraduate (bachelor's) degree programs
- $7,500 per year for post-graduate (master's or Juris Doctor) or doctorate (PhD) degree programs

The scholarship can be used for tuition and books in areas aligning with government's current and future skill needs. Successful applicants must commit to a return of service.

For complete program details visit the Pacific Leaders Scholarships program page on Careers & MyHR.

Program conditions

- You must be a regular employee of an eligible employer and completed your initial probationary period in the BC Public Service
- Your program of study must evaluate your coursework using graded tools (exams or papers) and must result in a certificate, diploma or degree at a designated post-secondary institution
- You are at minimum, achieving expectations in your current role and your intended study plans must be described in your current Performance Development platform (or your organization's current equivalent)
- Your career goals must be determined to be consistent with the current or future needs of government by your supervisor

Instructions and information

Read the instructions and conditions carefully. Complete every step and obtain your supervisor's approval for this application. This form and associated documents must be completed and signed digitally on your computer.

1. Complete Sections 1, 2 and 4 on page 3 of this form and:
  - Write a dated and signed letter indicating how the program of study supports your career development in the BC Public Service in 500 words maximum
  - Provide a dated and signed letter of support from your current supervisor (see guide for supervisor letters below)
  - Sign your fully completed application form
  - Keep a copy of your completed application package for your records
2. Forward your completed application package to your supervisor, who must:
  - Review your application package
  - Confirm scholarship funding is provided by your ministry or organization
  - Confirm you are at minimum, achieving expectations in your current role
  - Confirm your requested program of study is consistent with your career path as discussed within your current Performance Development platform (or your organization's current equivalent)
  - Confirm the requested program of study is consistent with BC Public Service goals
  - Sign Section 5 of the application form and return it to you for submission
3. Save all application documents in one PDF, and email your completed application package to PacificLeadersEmployeeScholarships@gov.bc.ca

Late applications are not accepted. Application packages must be received by:

- January 31 for spring and summer semesters

- May 31 for fall semester
- September 30 for winter semester

Only one scholarship can be approved every 365 days. Overlapping scholarships are not permitted.

Approval notifications are issued six weeks after the application deadline. You will be contacted if your application is denied.

If approved:

4. Ensure progress in your program of study is part of your ongoing performance management conversations
5. Once your program of study is complete, you must provide proof of a passing grade to your ministry contact, otherwise your ministry may require repayment in full. Review the rules about academic transcripts and grades for more information.

Guide for supervisor letters

Supervisor letters of recommendation are a vital part of assessing an applicant's suitability for a scholarship. Letters must be 500 words maximum, dated and signed. If this is a renewal application, an updated letter is required. Your evaluation of the applicant could include the following factors:

- Capacity/readiness
  - Extent of motivation to engage in a program of study
  - Potential for growth, professional development and career momentum
- Leadership
  - Degree of demonstration of leadership capabilities
  - Extent of ability to act as a change agent in the workplace
- Commitment
  - Extent of your support for this applicant
  - Likelihood of the BC Public Service continuing as the employer of choice for applicant

Please comment on as many of these factors as you can. Be as specific as possible.

Final checklist for applicant (new or renewal)

Prior to submission, ensure you have met any internal pre-screening requirements from your organization. The final application package must include each of the four following documents before it can be considered for approval:

1. Completed and signed application form for the current intake
2. Dated letter written and signed by you supporting your application
3. Dated letter written and signed by your supervisor within the last three months supporting your application. If your supervisor is different than the signatory on your application form, refer to the instructions on Careers & MyHR
4. For a renewal application, you must also submit at least one of the following:
  - A copy of an eligible transcript (listing your name, educational institution, dates and marks) demonstrating achievement of the minimum grade requirement in each scholarship-funded course to date
  - Confirmation from your ministry you repaid any funds owed for failing to meet the minimum grade requirement or for withdrawing from any courses for which you were reimbursed
  - Confirmation from your ministry you did not submit claims for reimbursement on your last approved scholarship year (if you do not have a transcript or grades to provide from that time). See the application for further details.

Section 3: Return of service (Review guidelines on Careers & MyHR)

- For each 12 month period a scholarship is provided, all applicants must agree to one year of return of service to the BC Public Service, plus one additional year upon completion of the final scholarship year
- If scholarship recipients leave the BC Public Service prior to the completion of the return of service commitment, they must refund the cost of scholarship funding received, pro-rated to the time remaining in the return of service commitment

Intake	Scholarship year		Return of service commitment
Applications are accepted for consideration three times per year (January, May, September)  This application is for the Sept. 30, 2024 intake	Your scholarship year is based on the intake period in which you apply. It is the same for everyone in that intake, regardless of when your courses begin or end. The first day of your scholarship year is the earliest date your courses can begin.		The start of your return of service is the day after the end date of your scholarship year. The end of your return of service is calculated by adding two years to your scholarship year's end date.
