General Guidance	This band represents a full working level position providing program and/or operational services. May include supervision of employees classified at Grid R21 or less, but would not include supervision of other management employees. Relationships relate to delivery of corporate and operational programs. Decisions typically relate to corporate administration, information compilation, issues management, etc. Generally deals with routine issues and problems that require the exercise of some discretion. Solves problems from choosing between a known range of solutions and/or prescribed protocols. In some cases, this will be a bargaining unit offset where the position is deemed to be a Schedule A or statutory exclusion.	This band requires a professional designation or university degree or equivalent. Subordinate employees would be engaged in direct program or service delivery for a defined area of expertise. Position makes decisions without consultation and will participate in the development of guidelines and procedures. Decisions transcend following prescribed guidelines and reflect greater independence of action than Band 1. These are not decisions related to office administration, information compilation, issues management, etc. where impact is limited. Some positions will plan, lead, organize and evaluate a portfolio of work where reference to a higher authority is reserved for highly complex problems. Although decisions can commit to a course of action there are typically subject matter experts available for consultation. Stakeholder engagement may involve managing the sharing of information, coordinating business activities, providing guidance to influence outcomes in a governance or regulatory role.	This band has supervisory responsibility for Band 2 positions that are within a recognized professional discipline. Depth of knowledge in a broad subject matter area that is gained through extensive study and/or experience sufficient to be an authority. Provides functional guidance to others in area of expertise. Stakeholder engagement typically involves collaboration to represent the business, project(s) and/or initiative(s), with a focus on building strong trust-based relationships with stakeholders. This band could be described as the “seasoned expert”. Plays active role in the development of new policies, procedures and program delivery. Options to resolve issues often demonstrate new and innovative approaches, reflect change management goals, and typically involve extensive consultation with other stakeholders. The position has authority to make final decisions without reference to a higher authority on matters of considerable impact.	This band has primary responsibility to plan requirements and anticipate long term needs and trends. Generally no higher source of subject matter experts to whom to defer. May be a subject matter expert in more than one area. Stakeholder engagement is focused on identifying new opportunities for collaboration or negotiation, committing resources and may be a representative in formal negotiations. Establishes policies, frameworks and protocols to guide the decisions of others. Course of action or decisions may set a precedent for future program and service delivery. Influence and scope/impact extends over a wide geographic area covering a large number of citizens. Program and service responsibilities will typically be multi-faceted.	This band is typified by positions that articulate a vision and strategy consistent with government’s goals and objectives. Reporting relationship will typically be to an executive position (or Band 6 in a minority of cases). The position will require a significant depth of subject matter knowledge, or be typified by its leadership qualities to manage large and diverse teams. Stakeholder engagement involves providing oversight of negotiation or consultations for major business(es), project(s), and/or initiative(s) and to represent the interests of the Province or Ministry when evaluating commitments. Routinely makes decisions where no precedent exists and outcomes are not necessarily known. Responsible for several significant functions or for a single major function that impacts the ministry or government framework. Responsibilities and actions overlap with other program/service areas and decisions cannot always be made in isolation without considering such impacts. Bona fide responsibility for extensive resources (i.e. not a shadow budget controlled by another authority).	This band is achieved through the scope and dimensions of the job and the relationship to government priorities. A position must clearly meet Band 5 criteria for special Deputy Minister consideration at Band 6.

Note: Typically, Leadership criteria will align with Problem Solving and Autonomy criteria within the same band; however, the level of Leadership is not the driver for role allocation. In some situations, a position may fall within a different band for Leadership than for Problem Solving and Autonomy (e.g. it may fall within a higher band in Leadership and a lower band in Problem Solving and Autonomy; or it may fall within a lower band in Leadership and a higher band in Problem Solving and Autonomy). In these cases, the position is allocated to the Band in which the majority of criteria are met (i.e. the position meets at least 2 criteria for Problem Solving and at least 1 criteria for Autonomy within the same band). If a position does not meet the majority of criteria within a band, the role would be allocated to the lower band.
