- 2) are NOT binding on the Province; and
- 3) do NOT constitute an Addendum to the RFQ.

Qualification Response
Question 1.01:	We are very clear on the content, headings, and section number(s) requirements as stipulated in the RFQ submission guidelines, but we are unclear as to if the actual table design structure as indicated in the RFQ must be used, or if the submission can be in the form of a simple word document using either landscape or portrait layout and using the headings and section numbers to support the content of our response on each page(s)?
Answer 1.01:	A Respondent may determine the formatting of its submission, but should follow the outline using the headings and section numbers in Table 3 of Appendix A to the RFQ.
