

MINERAL EXPLORATION

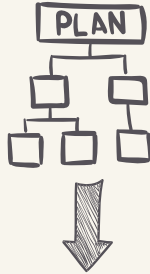

START

Funding provided through the Canada-British Columbia Labour Market Development Agreement.

CAREER ZONE

CORE GRADE 11-12 COURSES

- Dual Credit
- Career Prep Certif
- Work Experience
- Electives

GRAD

DIRECT-TO-WORK

APPRENTICESHIP CERTIFICATE

Example: Red Seal Certificate

COLLEGE CERTIFICATE OR DIPLOMA

Example: Environmental Technology Diploma

COLLEGE OR UNIVERSITY DEGREE

Example: Bachelor of Applied Science in Engineering

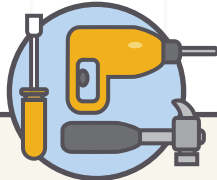

FIELD ASSISTANT

Helps exploration team by cutting brush, taking soil samples, and helping with other duties.

OTHER CAREERS IN DEMAND:

- Mine labourer
- Camp coordinator
- Core cutter
- Kitchen helper

CARPENTER

Works to assemble remote exploration camps including drill pads and accomodation.

OTHER CAREERS IN DEMAND:

- Electrician
- Welder
- Cook/chef
- Heavy duty equipment-operator

GIS TECHNICIAN

Processes GPS data, produces field maps, and maintains GIS database.

OTHER CAREERS IN DEMAND:

- Assayer
- Safety attendant
- Community relations
- Surveyor

EXPLORATION GEOLOGIST

Tests site for geological anomalies in search of economic mineral deposits

OTHER CAREERS IN DEMAND:

- Civil engineer
- Environmental geologist
- Environmental engineer
- Geological engineer
- GIS geologist