SECTION 2 - ASSOCIATES

You have been identified as an associate of an applicant for a British Columbia non-medical cannabis marketing licence. You must provide the information listed below as part of the application process.

You must complete the required forms, provide supporting documentation and verify your identity. Some of the necessary steps involve a visit to a Service BC office, a local police station, or a lawyer/notary, depending on your location.

Forms are available for download here.

Please follow the steps that apply to you in the table below. Depending on your jurisdiction, some steps require services that may involve a fee.

Please note: An application for a cannabis marketing licence is not considered complete for processing until identified associates have submitted their forms and have had their identity verified. Please communicate directly with the applicant that identified you as an associate if there are problems or delays in meeting requirements. Also note, applicants are required to provide associates with their application name and number.
