

Requesting the Full Restoration of Your B.C. Company by the Court

Thank you for your request on how to restore your B.C. company under section 360 of the Business Corporations Act (the Act). See Appendix A, attached.

All steps need to be completed in the order shown.

WHO CAN APPLY?

This information package outlines the steps for a court ordered full restoration of a B.C. company, or the conversion of a court ordered limited restoration to a full restoration, by any person.

The Act provides for two ways in which a dissolved company can be restored:

1. restoration approved by the registrar; and
2. restoration by the Supreme Court.

However, the Act also provides for legal proceedings to be taken against a dissolved company within two years of its dissolution without having to restore the company at all.

Note: A legal proceeding may be continued or brought against a company within two years after its dissolution as if the company had not been dissolved. See section 346(1)(b) of the Act in Appendix A.

There are some instances where the Act requires the authority of the court to restore a company. In these instances it will be necessary to apply to the Supreme Court for an order to restore the company. For example, if the dissolution of the company occurred before the Act came into force on March 29, 2004 and the application to restore is made more than ten years after the date of the dissolution, then the application for restoration must be made to the court.

Further, if the company owned land at the time of its dissolution, that land escheats to the Crown under the Escheat Act. If the company has been dissolved for more than two years, section 4(5) of the Escheat Act requires a court order for the vesting of the land back to the dissolved company. Therefore, it may be simpler to apply to the court for a court ordered limited restoration and include the vesting of the land in that same application to the court.

For more information on Escheat claims see Appendix B and contact the Escheat office at 250-356-8819.

For an information package on how to apply for a registrar approved limited restoration, please go to the Corporate Registry website www.bcreg.ca or contact us directly at 1 877 526-1526.

STEP ONE

The first step in a court ordered restoration is to contact the Corporations Unit of the Corporate Registry at 1 877 526-1526 to establish that the company is dissolved. The Corporations Unit will provide you with a search print of the company showing its date of dissolution and the address of the company's registered office.

STEP TWO

The next step in restoration is to ensure the name of the company is available. As the company's name is no longer protected once it is dissolved, the original name may not be available for restoration. The Name Request form (FORM NR, attached) allows you to make a maximum of three choices of names, in descending order of preference. The filing fee for this form is $30.

If the company is to be restored with its incorporation number at the time of dissolution followed by "B.C. Ltd." or "B.C. Community Contribution Company Ltd." (e.g. 123456 B.C. Ltd.), then Step Two can be omitted. This information must be indicated on the Full Restoration Application (FORM 30, attached) in Item C.

Note: In the "Additional Information" section of the Name Request form, print or type the word "Restoration".

You can apply for the company's name in the following ways:

ONLINE OPTIONS:

- Submit your Name Approval Request electronically through Name Requests Online at www.bcregistrynames.gov.bc.ca. Payment is by credit card. There is online information you can access to help you through the process. The fee to submit online is $30.00 and a BC OnLine service fee of $1.50.
- If you have a BC OnLine account you can submit your request electronically at www.bconline.gov.bc.ca.

IN-PERSON OPTIONS:

- Visit your local Service BC Centre. Once you've paid the fee, they will submit your request to the Corporate Registry. For a location near you, go to www.servicebc.gov.bc.ca.

- Visit your local OneStop service delivery location. Once you've paid the fee, they will submit your request to the Corporate Registry. User fees may apply. For a location near you, go to www.bcbusinessregistry.ca.

OneStop service delivery locations are able to assist with some business start-up information. Once your business has been established, the OneStop locations are a great source for business resource materials.

MAILING OPTIONS

- Mail your Name Request form along with a cheque or money order for $30.00 payable to the Minister of Finance, to:

Corporate Registry
PO Box 9431 Stn Prov Govt
Victoria BC V8W 9V3.

Restoration documentation cannot be processed until your corporate name has been approved and reserved.

Note: Once your name is approved, it is reserved for you for a period of 1 year plus 56 calendar days.

For further information regarding completion of your Name Request form, contact the Corporate Registry at 1 877 526-1526. Corporate Registry staff cannot provide legal or business advice.

STEP THREE

Step 3(A)

Next you must advertise your intent to restore the company in the British Columbia Gazette for one week prior to the date of the court granting the order in Step Five.

For information on the gazetting process, including the publication deadline date and the fees required, contact Crown Publications, www.crownpub.bc.ca.

Sample wording for the gazette notice for a Full Restoration Application:

RESTORATION APPLICATION

Take notice that a restoration application will be made to the registrar of companies to restore: [insert company name], [insert incorporation number].

Dated at [insert city], B.C., this [insert day] day of [insert month], [insert year]. – [insert name of person applying for gazette notice], [insert relationship to company]

A copy of the British Columbia Gazette publication containing your notice will be mailed to you by Queen's Printer.

Enter the publication date confirmed by Queen's Printer in Item G of the Full Restoration Application (FORM 30, attached).

Step 3(B)

The search print provided in Step One will show the directors and registered office address of the company where you are to mail the notice. You must send by registered mail a notice of your intent to restore the company to all individuals who were directors at the time of dissolution and to the mailing address of the registered office of the company, or if the mailing address is not shown, to the last address shown in the Corporate Register as the registered office address.

STEP FOUR

The next step in the process is to make an application to the Supreme Court of British Columbia (the court) for an order to restore the company. This is a two-part procedure. The first part is outlined here in Step Four and the second part is outlined in Step Six.

For complete instructions and information on the court restoration process, along with the fees required, contact the British Columbia Superior Courts. Visit www.courts.gov.bc.ca for a listing of court addresses, phone and fax numbers.

To obtain the Supreme Court "Company Restoration Package" for information and Supreme Court forms, go to www.courts.gov.bc.ca/supreme_court/self-represented_litigants/info_packages.aspx.

If you require assistance, contact the British Columbia Superior Court in your area or seek legal advice. BC Registry Services staff cannot assist you with the completion of these court documents.

The initial application to the court consists of a requisition and the first affidavit. For the majority of applications, the following facts must be established:

- the date the company was dissolved;
- the reasons why the company was dissolved;
- the identity of the person applying for restoration;
- that the person applying for the restoration is a related person within the meaning of section 354(2) of the Business Corporations Act or the reasons why the court should order that person is an appropriate person to make the application according to section 354(2)(a)(iii) or (b)(iii) of the Business Corporations Act;
- the reasons and interest of the person applying for restoration in doing so;
- the reasons why an order should contain terms and conditions which would give the order sought retrospective effect pursuant to section 360(5);
- that notice of the application was published in the Gazette (the entire page of the Gazette showing the date of publication must be attached as an exhibit marked in such a way to identify the relevant announcement);

- that notice of the application was mailed to all individuals who were directors at the time of dissolution and to the last address shown as the registered office of the company (a copy of the corporate search conducted in the Corporate Registry should be attached as an exhibit as well as a copy of the letters and the envelopes in which the letters were mailed); and
- the name under which the company will be restored.

Should the company apply for a restoration under a new name, both names must be set out in the initial application (requisition and affidavit) to the court (e.g. Old Name being restored as New Name).

Once the initial application is completed, the affidavit must be witnessed by a notary public or commissioner for taking oaths. Return the application (requisition and affidavit), in duplicate, along with the required court fees, to the court. The court clerk will file one copy, open your action number, and stamp and return the duplicate copy of the application to you.

STEP FIVE

After filing documents with the court, the applicant submits by fax, mail or email the stamped duplicate copy of the application that was filed in the courts (consisting of requisition and affidavit) to the Corporate Registry.

Our fax number is 250 356-8923; our email address is BCRegistries@gov.bc.ca; and our mail address is Corporate Registry, PO Box 9431 Stn Prov Govt, Victoria BC V8W 9V3.

Ensure your application contains the full name and mailing address of the applicant.

Next, this office will prepare the registrar's consent to the restoration. The consent letter will be mailed to the applicant for restoration at the mailing address indicated in the application. The consent is valid for six months.

STEP SIX

The applicant must file a second affidavit and a draft order with the Supreme Court of British Columbia (the court). This affidavit must establish by personal knowledge that:

- Notice of the initial application in Step Five was sent to the Registrar of Companies and that the registrar has consented to the restoration. The registrar's consent should be attached as an exhibit.
- Notice of the initial application was published in the British Columbia Gazette. The entire page of the British Columbia Gazette showing the date of publication must be attached as an exhibit.
- Notice of the intent to restore was mailed to all individuals who were directors at the time of dissolution and to the last address shown as the registered office of the company (see Step 3(B)). A copy of the corporate search received with the registrar's consent, along with the registered mail receipts and copies of the notices of the intent must be attached as an exhibit.

You must also prepare a draft copy of the court order. Once the draft copy of the court order is completed and the second affidavit has been witnessed by a notary public or commissioner for taking oaths, submit the draft order and affidavit to the court. The court will review the draft order and affidavit and grant or deny the court order. If the order is denied, then you must comply with what the court requests.

STEP SEVEN

The Full Restoration Application (FORM 30, attached), is to be completed and submitted to the Corporate Registry for filing. Any outstanding Annual Reports (FORM 06 COM, attached), Directors Changes (FORM 10 COM, attached), as well as the appropriate fees, must accompany the Full Restoration Application. The letter of consent to restore may request you also provide the registrar with a copy of the court order. Complete Item I (not Item H) of the Full Restoration Application to indicate you have obtained the court order.

The Business Corporations Act requires a company to maintain a Dissolved Company Records Office for a period of two years after dissolution of the company. The location of these dissolved company records must be indicated in Item K of the application.

If the Dissolved Company's Records Office location is not available, then complete Item L of the application. The addresses indicated in either Item K or Item L will become the new Records Office for the company once it is restored.

All filings must include the fees as follows:

Full Restoration Application	$ 350.00
Each Annual Report	$ 43.39
Each Director Change	$ 20.00
Each instance of Priority Service (optional)	$ 100.00

All filings are processed on a first-come, first-served basis unless you pay an additional priority fee. If you wish one or more of the filings to be processed on a priority basis, an additional $100 will be required for each service requested. If the filings are being submitted on a priority basis, clearly indicate on both the envelope and the documentation that the submission is a priority.

A priority service is considered completed when the document is filed or the service request is completed. Turnaround is usually within 24 hours.

Note: If a document to be filed has errors and requires correction, then those corrections must be made and returned to this office within the 24 hour period to maintain priority status.

Send your documentation, with cheque or money order payable to the Minister of Finance, by mail to:

Corporate Registry
PO Box 9431 Stn Prov Govt
Victoria BC V8W 9V3

or by courier to:

Corporate Registry
200 - 940 Blanshard Street
Victoria BC V8W 3E6

Once the documentation has been filed, the registrar will forward a Certificate of Restoration of the entity to the submitting party and will publish, in the British Columbia Gazette, a notification of the restoration.

STEP EIGHT

Once the Limited Restoration Application meets all requirements and has been filed, the company will be restored. The registrar will:

- Publish a notice of the limited restoration and the date it expires on the Queen's Printer website, www.bclaws.ca;
- Provide a certificate and, if requested to do so, certified copy of the Full Restoration Application to the company;
- Provide to the company a certified copy of the Notice of Articles as altered (for a company who has transitioned or incorporated after March 26, 2004);
- Provide to the company, if requested to do so, a certified copy of the Notice of Articles as altered for each Director Change filed (for a company who has transitioned or incorporated after March 26, 2004); and
- Provide to the company, if requested to do so, confirmation of the change of directors (for a company who has not transitioned).

ESCHEAT CLAIMS Background Information

WHEN ISSUES INVOLVING ESCHEATS ARISE

Issues involving escheats arise in a variety of situations. Probably the most frequent situation is when a corporation is dissolved for failure to file annual reports and, at the time of dissolution, held land, an interest in land or personal property. Occasionally, situations occur where someone dies without a will and no one exists who would be entitled to the estate.

The Crown is the owner of otherwise ownerless property, by Crown prerogative. The Escheat Act, R.S.B.C. 1996, c.120, codifies parts of the common law.

OPTIONS FOR THE APPLICANT IN ESCHEAT MATTERS

Section 4(1) of the Escheat Act provides that land in British Columbia held by a corporation (includes an extraprovincial company) when it dissolves, escheats to the Crown, but section 4(3) provides that the government must not dispose of it for two years following the dissolution. Section 4(4) provides that if the corporation is revived within two years of its dissolution, the revival has the effect as if the land had not escheated and subject to the terms of any court order, the land vests in the corporation.

Applicants who are dealing with a dissolved corporation may have the option of applying to the court for an order to revive the corporations. Where the dissolved corporation was the owner of land upon dissolution, it is important to ensure that the court order addresses the vesting of the land back to the dissolved corporation upon restoration.

A second option to deal with land that was held by a corporation which has dissolved is to proceed with an application for a Ministerial Order through the Escheats Office. Such an application requires approval of the Attorney General or Deputy Attorney General. This process generally takes a number of weeks.

SEEK LEGAL ADVICE

The Escheats Office strongly recommends that applicants seek independent legal advice on how to proceed with any escheat matter.

NAME APPROVAL REQUEST INSTRUCTIONS

IMPORTANT – READ CAREFULLY

RESEARCH YOUR CHOICES!

The Names Examiner searches the Corporate Register only. This register includes the names of corporations incorporated or registered extraprovincially in British Columbia. It does not include names of British Columbia firms, trademarks or corporations registered outside British Columbia. If you want to ensure your name is not used outside of British Columbia, you could also access the Trademarks database at www.strategis.ic.gc.ca, or you may wish to search other jurisdictions in Canada. Most public business and trademark registers in Canada are reflected in the NUANS database, which may be searched for a fee through private search firms.

The approval of any name is at the discretion of the Registrar. You are paying for three choices. Do not commit to any name before it is approved. Provide three choices for each company you wish to name, in descending order of preference. Check them out for potential conflicts through telephone listings, business directories and other publications.

Occasionally this office will reject all three of your choices. If that happens, it will be necessary for you to complete another Name Request form with three more choices and submit it to this office with another reservation fee.

GENERAL

This form is used for the approval of all corporate and business names in British Columbia.

The first step in incorporation (company, society, cooperative association, financial institution) or registration of firms (partnership, proprietorship) or extraprovincial companies, is the approval of the name through the Names Reservation Unit of the Corporate Registry.

Once your name is approved, it is reserved for you for a period of 56 calendar days. Any renewals of the reservation period will require payment of another reservation fee.

If you need assistance call our help telephone number 1 877 526-1526.

Once your name is reserved, the next step is to submit the necessary information to incorporate a company or society, register a proprietorship, partnership or limited partnership or register a foreign entity as an extraprovincial company.

Please go to the Corporate Registry's website for information on how to incorporate or register, as well as information on other services provided by the Corporate Registry.

The website address is: www.bcreg.ca

Approval of a name by the Registrar for either a corporation or a firm does not provide a proprietary right or interest in the name under any circumstances. It is intended solely to protect the public interest by:

- preventing names of corporations which are so similar as to confuse or mislead; and
- providing a record which allows the public to determine which individuals are associated with a corporation or firm name.

A corporation or a firm name may be registered under the same name as another firm. As a result there are many duplications of firms names, however, a firm or a corporation name will not be accepted if it can be confused with another corporate name.

FIRM NAMES (partnership, proprietorship, limited partnerships, limited liability partnership)

Registration of a firm does not provide any protection for that name and does not mean that the name will be available if you decide to incorporate a company using this name.

Fees

The payment of fees in advance is a mandatory requirement of doing all business with the Corporate Registry office. The fee to submit a Name Request to the Corporate Registry by mail is $30.00

Applicants are urged to consult the current Fee Schedule. Payment of the wrong amount is a common cause for the rejection of name requests. Cheques and money orders are to be made payable to the Minister of Finance.

PRIORITY SERVICE

Names are processed in the order of time of receipt. Upon request and on payment of an additional fee, an application will be processed in priority to others, normally within 24 hours of receipt.

PROCESS

This form allows you to make a maximum of three choices, in order of preference, for each name approval. If you wish to have more than one name approved, you must complete an additional form and pay another fee. Your first choice for a name may be approved, if available, and held for a period of 56 calendar days. Any renewals of the reservation period will require payment of another reservation fee. Your 2nd and 3rd choices are not examined unless the initial choice of name is not available. Regardless of whether your three choices are all examined or not, the full fee is charged.

A name approval request may be made on this form, or in writing with the same information as is required on this form.

You can apply for your name in the following ways:

OVER THE INTERNET: Go to Name Requests Online at www.bcregistrynames.gov.bc.ca to submit your Name Request electronically, for examination by the Names Reservation Unit at the Corporate Registry. Payment is by credit card. There is online information you can access to help you through the process. The fee to submit online is $30 and a BC OnLine service fee of $1.50.

BY SERVICE BC CENTRE: Visit any Service BC Centre who will transmit the request to the Registrar. For locations go to www.servicebc.gov.bc.ca.

BY ONESTOP SERVICE DELIVERY LOCATION: Visit your local OneStop service delivery location. They will transmit the request to the Registries. User fees may apply. For locations go to www.bcbusinessregistry.ca.

NAME COMPONENTS

In assessing names, the Registrar's staff analyze them according to their constituent components. The form of name acceptable in principle consists of a distinctive element, followed by a descriptive element and ending with a corporate designation (if applicable).

e.g. ABC Manufacturing Ltd.

DISTINCTIVE ELEMENT

The distinctive element serves to differentiate names having identical or similar descriptive elements, and for that reason, is the most important element to be examined in the name.

Names such as "Tire Shop Ltd." and "Shoe Store Ltd." lack an appropriate distinctive element and would be rejected for that reason.

They would be acceptable, if prefixed with an additional distinctive element (e.g. coined word, geographical location or personal name) that would distinguish them from all the other tire shops and shoe stores.

e.g. Vancouver Tire Shop Ltd. Sandell's Shoe Store Ltd.

Coined and made-up words are acceptable distinctive elements, provided they do not conflict with others already registered.

e.g. Intertex Enterprises Ltd. Fabuform Diet Centre Ltd.

A uniquely coined word, used in addition to a geographical location (e.g. Altrex Canada Ltd.), is normally considered sufficiently distinctive by itself that a descriptive element is not usually required.

DESCRIPTIVE ELEMENT

The descriptive element is useful in describing the nature of the business as well as expanding the options available. It allows for use of identical or similar distinctive elements, which might be desirable in developing a particular presence in the marketplace.

e.g. Victoria Brake Shop Ltd. Victoria Stationery Ltd.

CORPORATE DESIGNATION

A company must have as part of and at the end of its name, the corporate designation, "Limited", "Limitee", "Incorporated", "Incorporee" or "Corporation".

For all purposes, using the abbreviations of these words (e.g. "Ltd.", "Ltee.", "Inc." or "Corp.") is acceptable.

Extrajurisdictional companies that are Limited Liability Companies may have "Limited Liability Company" or "LLC" at the end of their name.

The corporate designation is not applicable to a firm name, society or cooperative name.

Firm names for partnerships and proprietorships cannot use "Ltd.", "Inc." or "Corp." in their names, but they may use "Company" or "Co."

Firm names for limited partnerships must use "Limited Partnership" at the end of the name.

Firm names for limited liability partnerships must use "Limited Liability Partnership" or "LLP." at the end of the name.

Societies should have the designation "Society" or "Association" as the last word in their name. Companies are precluded from the use of these words in their names.

Cooperatives should use the word "Cooperative" in their name and may also use "Association", "Society", "Union" and "Exchange".

SINGLE WORD NAMES

Single word names (such as International Limited) are normally not sufficiently distinct from other names containing the same word and generally will not be approved.

An exception may be allowed if the proposed, single-word name contains a coined word that has been trademarked and evidence of the trademark is presented with the name request. Each case will be determined on its merits.

Obvious contractions of common words (e.g. Petrochem, being a contraction of petroleum and chemical) are not considered to be coined words for the purposes of single-word names.

NUMBER NAMES

Numerals may be used in company names as the distinctive element. A year may be used in a name provided that it is the year of incorporation, amalgamation, change of name, or registration.

e.g. 123456 Enterprises Ltd. Pacific Enterprises (1997) Ltd.

The incorporation number may be used as the name of a British Columbia company. The accepted format is "345678 B.C. Ltd."

A name reservation or fee is not required for B.C. companies using just their incorporation number. The name will be given according to the next available number at the time of incorporation.

Numbered companies from other jurisdictions, continuing into British Columbia and wishing to retain their numbered names, will be required to conform with the name requirements of this province.

PERSONAL NAMES

In most cases, a natural person's full name will be considered to be sufficiently distinctive and therefore acceptable.

e.g. Bill Brown Ltd. John Smith Inc.

Two surnames, or initials with a surname, are normally accepted.

e.g. Brown, Green Inc. J.R. Black Corp.

WELL KNOWN NAMES

Names, which include well known trade names and trademarks, will not be allowed without the advance written consent of the holder.

e.g. Exxon, Xerox, Coke

EXTRAJURISDICTIONAL NAMES

Special consideration will be given to established extrajurisdictional companies applying for registration in the province, provided there is not a direct conflict in names.

SPECIAL CHARACTERS

The use of special characters (such as % or *) should be avoided in corporate and business names.

Some special characters may not be recognized by computer, will not print accurately and may not be allowed.

The "¢" symbol will not be approved in a name under any circumstances.

NO SUGGESTION OF GOVERNMENT CONNECTION

The word "government" (in either its English or French form) will not be allowed. Other words which might imply connection with, or endorsement by, any government require written consent of that government. Examples of other words which imply government connection are "ministry", "bureau", "secretariat", "commission" and "certified".

The use of "British Columbia" or "BC" as the distinctive element in any name is considered to imply connection with the Government of the Province of British Columbia. Use will be accepted only on the written consent of that government, usually obtained from the Protocol Office, Intergovernmental Relations Secretariat, after the name has been approved by the Registrar.

Use of the words "British Columbia" and "BC" will be accepted without consent, if they are placed at the end of a name and before the corporate designation.

e.g. Pacific Warehouse Storage BC Ltd.

NO SUGGESTION OF CONNECTION WITH CROWN OR ROYAL FAMILY

A name which suggests or implies a connection with the Crown, any living member of the Royal family, or endorsement by the Crown or Royal family will not be accepted without the written consent from the appropriate authority after the name has been approved by the Registrar.

e.g. Prince Charles Tea Room Ltd.

This does not apply to references in a name to geographical locations such as Prince George, Prince Rupert and references to New Westminster as the Royal City.

The use of the words "Crown" or "Royal" in combination with another word(s) that does not imply connection with the Crown or Royal family may be allowed.

e.g. Triple Crown Painting Ltd. Royal Star Holdings Ltd.

OBJECTIONABLE NAMES

Names that are considered to be objectionable on public grounds will not be accepted.

A name will not be approved if it includes a vulgar expression, obscene word or connotation, racial, physical or sexual slur.

The use of names of public figures will not be accepted without the advance written consent of the person named.
