Thank you for your request on how to restore your B.C. company under section 359 of the Business Corporations Act (the Act). See Appendix A, attached.

WHO CAN APPLY?

This information package outlines the steps for a registrar approved limited restoration of a B.C. company by any person.

Limited restorations are usually done in order to undertake or finalize a particular legal transaction with the company. When the limited period expires, the company is dissolved again.

However, the Act also provides for legal proceedings to be taken against a dissolved company within two years of its dissolution without having to restore the company at all.

Note: A legal proceeding may be continued or brought against a company within two years after its dissolution as if the company had not been dissolved. See section 346(1)(b) of the Act in Appendix A.

The Act provides for two ways in which a dissolved company can be restored for a limited period:

1. restoration approved by the registrar; and
2. restoration by the Supreme Court.

There are some instances where the Act requires the authority of the court to restore a company. In these instances it will be necessary to apply to the Supreme Court for an order to restore the company. For example, if the dissolution of the company occurred before the Act came into force on March 29, 2004 and the application to restore is made more than ten years after the date of the dissolution, then the application for restoration must be made to the court.

Further, if the company owned land at the time of its dissolution, that land escheats to the Crown under the Escheat Act. If the company has been dissolved for more than two years, section 4(5) of the Escheat Act requires a court order for the vesting of the land back to the dissolved company. Therefore, it may be simpler to apply to the court for a court ordered limited restoration and include the vesting of the land in that same application to the court.

For more information on Escheat claims see Appendix B and contact the Escheat office at 250-356-8819.

For an information package on how to apply for a court ordered limited restoration, please go to the Corporate Registry website www.bcreg.ca or contact us directly at 1 877 526-1526.

All steps need to be completed in the order shown.

STEP ONE

The first step in restoration is to ensure the name of the company is available. As the company's name is no longer protected once it is dissolved, the original name may not be available for restoration. The Name Request form (FORM NR, attached) allows you to make a maximum of three choices of names, in descending order of preference. The filing fee for this form is $30.

If the company is to be restored with its incorporation number at the time of dissolution followed by "B.C. Ltd." or "B.C. Community Contribution Company Ltd." (e.g. 123456 B.C. Ltd.), then Step One can be omitted. This information must be indicated on the Limited Restoration Application (FORM 28, attached) in Item C.

Note: In the "Additional Information" section of the Name Request form, print or type the word "Restoration".

You can apply for the company's name in the following ways:

ONLINE OPTIONS:

- Submit your Name Approval Request electronically through Name Requests Online at www.bcregistrynames.gov.bc.ca. Payment is by credit card. There is online information you can access to help you through the process. The fee to submit online is $30.00 and a BC OnLine service fee of \$1.50.

MAILING OPTIONS

- Mail your Name Request form along with a cheque or money order for $30.00 payable to the Minister of Finance, to:

Corporate Registry
PO Box 9431 Stn Prov Govt
Victoria BC V8W 9V3.

Restoration documentation cannot be processed until your corporate name has been approved and reserved.

Note: Once your name is approved, it is reserved for you for a period of 1 year plus 56 calendar days.

For further information regarding completion of your Name Request form, contact the Corporate Registry at 1 877 526-1526. Corporate Registry staff cannot provide legal or business advice.

STEP TWO

Step 2(A)

The applicant must publish in the British Columbia Gazette, notice that an application "Notice" to restore the company for a limited period of time will be made to the registrar.

For information on the gazetting process, including the publication deadline date and the fees required, contact Crown Publications, www.crownpub.bc.ca.

Sample wording for the gazette notice for a Limited Restoration Application:

RESTORATION APPLICATION

Take notice that a restoration application will be made to the registrar of companies to restore: [insert company name], [insert incorporation number] for a limited period.

Dated at [insert city], B.C., this [insert day] day of [insert month], [insert year]. – [insert name of person applying for gazette notice], [insert relationship to company]

A copy of the British Columbia Gazette publication containing your notice will be mailed to you by King's Printer.

Enter the publication date confirmed by King's Printer in Item G of the Limited Restoration Application (FORM 28, attached; see Step Three).

Step 2(B)

The applicant must also mail a copy of the Notice to individuals who were directors at the time of dissolution as well as to the company's registered office address as shown in the Corporate Register. This notice can be a copy of the notice placed in the British Columbia Gazette. A search to determine the directors and company's last registered addresses can be made by contacting the Corporate Registry. BC OnLine clients can obtain a search online at www.bconline.com.

In Item G of the Limited Restoration Application (FORM 28, attached) enter the latest date you mailed this notice to the directors and the company's registered office.

Note: If the company was involuntarily dissolved within the last year due to failing to file annual reports, the 21 day waiting period from the BC Gazette Publication and notification of directors (whichever is later) will not apply. However, if the company was dissolved for another reason, or it has been dissolved for over 1 year, then the company will not be restored until 21 days after the later of the two dates in Item G of the Limited Restoration Application.

STEP THREE

The Limited Restoration Application (FORM 28, attached), is to be completed and submitted to the Corporate Registry for filing.

All filings must include the fees as follows:

Limited Restoration Application	$350
Priority Service (optional)	$100

All filings are processed on a first-come, first-served basis unless you pay an additional priority fee. If you wish the filings to be processed on a priority basis, an additional $100 will be required. If the filings are being submitted on a priority basis, clearly indicate on both the envelope and the documentation that the submission is a priority.

Note: Filing the restoration application on a priority basis will not waive the 21-day waiting period.

A priority service is considered completed when the document is filed or the service request is completed. Turnaround is usually within 2 business days. If a priority document to be filed has errors and requires correction, then those corrections must be made and returned to this office as soon as possible in order to maintain priority status.

Send your documentation, with cheque or money order payable to the Minister of Finance, by mail to:

Corporate Registry
PO Box 9431 Stn Prov Govt
Victoria BC V8W 9V3

or by courier to:

Corporate Registry
200 - 940 Blanshard Street
Victoria BC V8W 3E6

Once the documentation has been filed, the registrar will forward a Certificate of Restoration of the entity to the submitting party and will publish, in the British Columbia Gazette, a notification of the restoration.

STEP FOUR

Once the Limited Restoration Application meets all requirements and has been filed, the company will be restored. The registrar will:

- Publish a notice of the limited restoration and the date it expires on the King's Printer website, www.bclaws.ca;
- Provide a certificate and, if requested to do so, certified copy of the Limited Restoration Application to the company;
- Provide a copy of the certificate to the applicant; and
- Provide to the company, if requested to do so, a certified copy of the Notice of Articles (for a company who has transitioned).

CONVERSION TO A FULL RESTORATION

Prior to a limited restoration expiring, an application for a full restoration of the company may be made to the registrar.

Refer to the guide, "Requesting the Full Restoration of Your BC Company by the Registrar" for details.

ESCHEAT CLAIMS Background Information

WHEN ISSUES INVOLVING ESCHEATS ARISE

Issues involving escheats arise in a variety of situations. Probably the most frequent situation is when a corporation is dissolved for failure to file annual reports and, at the time of dissolution, held land, an interest in land or personal property. Occasionally, situations occur where someone dies without a will and no one exists who would be entitled to the estate.

The Crown is the owner of otherwise ownerless property, by Crown prerogative. The Escheat Act, R.S.B.C. 1996, c.120, codifies parts of the common law.

OPTIONS FOR THE APPLICANT IN ESCHEAT MATTERS

Section 4(1) of the Escheat Act provides that land in British Columbia held by a corporation (includes an extraprovincial company) when it dissolves, escheats to the Crown, but section 4(3) provides that the government must not dispose of it for two years following the dissolution. Section 4(4) provides that if the corporation is revived within two years of its dissolution, the revival has the effect as if the land had not escheated and subject to the terms of any court order, the land vests in the corporation.

Applicants who are dealing with a dissolved corporation may have the option of applying to the court for an order to revive the corporations. Where the dissolved corporation was the owner of land upon dissolution, it is important to ensure that the court order addresses the vesting of the land back to the dissolved corporation upon restoration.

A second option to deal with land that was held by a corporation which has dissolved is to proceed with an application for a Ministerial Order through the Escheats Office. Such an application requires approval of the Attorney General or Deputy Attorney General. This process generally takes a number of weeks.

SEEK LEGAL ADVICE

The Escheats Office strongly recommends that applicants seek independent legal advice on how to proceed with any escheat matter.

NAME APPROVAL REQUEST INSTRUCTIONS

IMPORTANT – READ CAREFULLY

RESEARCH YOUR CHOICES!

The Names Examiner searches the Corporate Register only. This register includes the names of corporations incorporated or registered extraprovincially in British Columbia. It does not include names of British Columbia firms, trademarks or corporations registered outside British Columbia. If you want to ensure your name is not used outside of British Columbia, you could also access the Trademarks database at www.strategis.ic.gc.ca, or you may wish to search other jurisdictions in Canada. Most public business and trademark registers in Canada are reflected in the NUANS database, which may be searched for a fee through private search firms.

The approval of any name is at the discretion of the Registrar. You are paying for three choices. Do not commit to any name before it is approved. Provide three choices for each company you wish to name, in descending order of preference. Check them out for potential conflicts through telephone listings, business directories and other publications.

Occasionally this office will reject all three of your choices. If that happens, it will be necessary for you to complete another Name Request form with three more choices and submit it to this office with another reservation fee.

GENERAL

This form is used for the approval of all corporate and business names in British Columbia.

The first step in incorporation (company, society, cooperative association, financial institution) or registration of firms (partnership, proprietorship) or extraprovincial companies, is the approval of the name through the Names Reservation Unit of the Corporate Registry.

Once your name is approved, it is reserved for you for a period of 56 calendar days. Any renewals of the reservation period will require payment of another reservation fee.

If you need assistance call our help telephone number 1 877 526-1526.

Once your name is reserved, the next step is to submit the necessary information to incorporate a company or society, register a proprietorship, partnership or limited partnership or register a foreign entity as an extraprovincial company.

Please go to the Corporate Registry's website for information on how to incorporate or register, as well as information on other services provided by the Corporate Registry.

The website address is: www.bcreg.ca

Approval of a name by the Registrar for either a corporation or a firm does not provide a proprietary right or interest in the name under any circumstances. It is intended solely to protect the public interest by:

- preventing names of corporations which are so similar as to confuse or mislead; and
- providing a record which allows the public to determine which individuals are associated with a corporation or firm name.

A corporation or a firm name may be registered under the same name as another firm. As a result there are many duplications of firms names, however, a firm or a corporation name will not be accepted if it can be confused with another corporate name.

FIRM NAMES (partnership, proprietorship, limited partnerships, limited liability partnership)

Registration of a firm does not provide any protection for that name and does not mean that the name will be available if you decide to incorporate a company using this name.

Fees

The payment of fees in advance is a mandatory requirement of doing all business with the Corporate Registry office. The fee to submit a Name Request to the Corporate Registry by mail is $30.00

Applicants are urged to consult the current Fee Schedule. Payment of the wrong amount is a common cause for the rejection of name requests. Cheques and money orders are to be made payable to the Minister of Finance.

PRIORITY SERVICE

Names are processed in the order of time of receipt. Upon request and on payment of an additional fee, an application will be processed in priority to others, normally within 24 hours of receipt.

PROCESS

This form allows you to make a maximum of three choices, in order of preference, for each name approval. If you wish to have more than one name approved, you must complete an additional form and pay another fee. Your first choice for a name may be approved, if available, and held for a period of 56 calendar days. Any renewals of the reservation period will require payment of another reservation fee. Your 2nd and 3rd choices are not examined unless the initial choice of name is not available. Regardless of whether your three choices are all examined or not, the full fee is charged.

A name approval request may be made on this form, or in writing with the same information as is required on this form.

You can apply for your name in the following ways:

OVER THE INTERNET: Go to www.bcregistry.ca/namerequest to submit your Name Request electronically, for examination by the Names Reservation Unit at Corporate Registry. Payment is by credit card, or other payment options if you have a BC Business Registry Account. There is online information you can access to help you through the process. The fee to submit online is $30 and a $1.50 service fee.

BY SERVICE BC CENTRE: Visit any Service BC Centre who will transmit the request to the Registrar. For locations go to www.servicebc.gov.bc.ca.

NAME COMPONENTS

In assessing names, the Registrar's staff analyze them according to their constituent components. The form of name acceptable in principle consists of a distinctive element, followed by a descriptive element and ending with a corporate designation (if applicable).

e.g. ABC Manufacturing Ltd.

DISTINCTIVE ELEMENT

The distinctive element serves to differentiate names having identical or similar descriptive elements, and for that reason, is the most important element to be examined in the name.

Names such as "Tire Shop Ltd." and "Shoe Store Ltd." lack an appropriate distinctive element and would be rejected for that reason.

They would be acceptable, if prefixed with an additional distinctive element (e.g. coined word, geographical location or personal name) that would distinguish them from all the other tire shops and shoe stores.

e.g. Vancouver Tire Shop Ltd. Sandell's Shoe Store Ltd.

Coined and made-up words are acceptable distinctive elements, provided they do not conflict with others already registered.

e.g. Intertex Enterprises Ltd. Fabuform Diet Centre Ltd.

A uniquely coined word, used in addition to a geographical location (e.g. Altrex Canada Ltd.), is normally considered sufficiently distinctive by itself that a descriptive element is not usually required.

DESCRIPTIVE ELEMENT

The descriptive element is useful in describing the nature of the business as well as expanding the options available. It allows for use of identical or similar distinctive elements, which might be desirable in developing a particular presence in the marketplace.

e.g. Victoria Brake Shop Ltd. Victoria Stationery Ltd.

CORPORATE DESIGNATION

A company must have as part of and at the end of its name, the corporate designation, "Limited", "Limitee", "Incorporated", "Incorporee" or "Corporation".

For all purposes, using the abbreviations of these words (e.g. "Ltd.", "Ltee.", "Inc." or "Corp.") is acceptable.

Extrajurisdictional companies that are Limited Liability Companies may have "Limited Liability Company" or "LLC" at the end of their name.

The corporate designation is not applicable to a firm name, society or cooperative name.

Firm names for partnerships and proprietorships cannot use "Ltd.", "Inc." or "Corp." in their names, but they may use "Company" or "Co."

Firm names for limited partnerships must use "Limited Partnership" at the end of the name.

Firm names for limited liability partnerships must use "Limited Liability Partnership" or "LLP" at the end of the name.

Societies should have the designation "Society" or "Association" as the last word in their name. Companies are precluded from the use of these words in their names.

Cooperatives should use the word "Cooperative" in their name and may also use "Association", "Society", "Union" and "Exchange".

SINGLE WORD NAMES

Single word names (such as International Limited) are normally not sufficiently distinct from other names containing the same word and generally will not be approved.

An exception may be allowed if the proposed, single-word name contains a coined word that has been trademarked and evidence of the trademark is presented with the name request. Each case will be determined on its merits.

Obvious contractions of common words (e.g. Petrochem, being a contraction of petroleum and chemical) are not considered to be coined words for the purposes of single-word names.

NUMBER NAMES

Numerals may be used in company names as the distinctive element. A year may be used in a name provided that it is the year of incorporation, amalgamation, change of name, or registration.

e.g. 123456 Enterprises Ltd. Pacific Enterprises (1997) Ltd.

The incorporation number may be used as the name of a British Columbia company. The accepted format is "345678 B.C. Ltd."

A name reservation or fee is not required for B.C. companies using just their incorporation number. The name will be given according to the next available number at the time of incorporation.

Numbered companies from other jurisdictions, continuing into British Columbia and wishing to retain their numbered names, will be required to conform with the name requirements of this province.

PERSONAL NAMES

In most cases, a natural person's full name will be considered to be sufficiently distinctive and therefore acceptable.

e.g. Bill Brown Ltd. John Smith Inc.

Two surnames, or initials with a surname, are normally accepted.

e.g. Brown, Green Inc. J.R. Black Corp.

WELL KNOWN NAMES

Names, which include well known trade names and trademarks, will not be allowed without the advance written consent of the holder.

e.g. Exxon, Xerox, Coke

EXTRAJURISDICTIONAL NAMES

Special consideration will be given to established extrajurisdictional companies applying for registration in the province, provided there is not a direct conflict in names.

SPECIAL CHARACTERS

The use of special characters (such as % or *) should be avoided in corporate and business names.

Some special characters may not be recognized by computer, will not print accurately and may not be allowed.

The "ç" symbol will not be approved in a name under any circumstances.

NO SUGGESTION OF GOVERNMENT CONNECTION

The word "government" (in either its English or French form) will not be allowed. Other words which might imply connection with, or endorsement by, any government require written consent of that government. Examples of other words which imply government connection are "ministry", "bureau", "secretariat", "commission" and "certified".

The use of "British Columbia" or "BC" as the distinctive element in any name is considered to imply connection with the Government of the Province of British Columbia. Use will be accepted only on the written consent of that government, usually obtained from the Protocol Office, Intergovernmental Relations Secretariat, after the name has been approved by the Registrar.

Use of the words "British Columbia" and "BC" will be accepted without consent, if they are placed at the end of a name and before the corporate designation.

e.g. Pacific Warehouse Storage BC Ltd.

NO SUGGESTION OF CONNECTION WITH CROWN OR ROYAL FAMILY

A name which suggests or implies a connection with the Crown, any living member of the Royal family, or endorsement by the Crown or Royal family will not be accepted without the written consent from the appropriate authority after the name has been approved by the Registrar.

e.g. Prince Charles Tea Room Ltd.

This does not apply to references in a name to geographical locations such as Prince George, Prince Rupert and references to New Westminster as the Royal City.

The use of the words "Crown" or "Royal" in combination with another word(s) that does not imply connection with the Crown or Royal family may be allowed.

e.g. Triple Crown Painting Ltd. Royal Star Holdings Ltd.

OBJECTIONABLE NAMES

Names that are considered to be objectionable on public grounds will not be accepted.

A name will not be approved if it includes a vulgar expression, obscene word or connotation, racial, physical or sexual slur.

The use of names of public figures will not be accepted without the advance written consent of the person named.
