Provincial Business Taxes

Businesses with a payroll over $500,000 can defer their employer health tax payments until Sept. 30, 2020. Businesses with a payroll under this threshold are already exempt from the tax.

Provincial business tax filing and payment deadlines have also been extended until Sept. 30, 2020 for:
- provincial sales tax (PST);
- municipal and regional district tax;
- tobacco tax;
- motor fuel tax; and
- carbon tax.

The scheduled April 1, 2020 increase to the provincial carbon tax, as well as the new PST registration requirements on e-commerce and the implementation of PST on sweetened carbonated drinks, will be delayed with timing to be reviewed by Sept. 30, 2020.

B.C. Relief for Commercial Property Owners and Tenants

Business and light and major industry property classes will see their school property tax cut in half for the 2020 tax year, providing $500 million in relief for business that own their property and for tenants on triple-net leases.

Supports for Workers, Individuals and Families

Governments are providing supports directly to workers, individuals and families facing hardship as a result of the COVID-19 outbreak. Employers are encouraged to inform their workers of the supports available to them.

Have you been impacted by COVID-19?

Government of Canada

Enhancements to Employment Insurance (EI)
The Federal government has waived the one-week waiting period for individuals in imposed quarantine that claim EI sickness benefits. The requirement to provide a medical certificate to access EI sickness benefits has also been waived.

Government of Canada

EI Work Sharing Program
For Canadians who lose their jobs or face reduced hours as a result of COVID's impact, this program provides EI benefits to workers who agree to reduce their normal working hour as a result of developments beyond the control of their employers. The eligibility of such agreements has been extended to 76 weeks, eligibility requirements have been eased, and the application process has been streamlined.

Government of Canada

Canada Emergency Response Benefit
(Previously called the Emergency Care Benefit and Emergency Support Benefit)
The Federal government will provide a taxable benefit of $2,000 a month for up to four months to:

- workers who must stop working due to COVID19 and do not have access to paid leave or other income support.
- workers who are sick, quarantined, or taking care of someone who is sick with COVID-19.
- working parents who must stay home without pay to care for children that are sick or need additional care because of school and daycare closures.
- workers who still have their employment but are not being paid because there is currently not sufficient work and their employer has asked them not to come to work.
- wage earners and self-employed individuals, including contract workers, who would not otherwise be eligible for Employment Insurance.

The Federal government will begin accepting applications on April 6, 2020 at canada.ca/coronavirus.

B.C. COVID-19 Action Plan

Emergency Benefit for Workers
Provides a tax-free $1,000 payment to British Columbians whose ability to work has been affected by the outbreak. The benefit will be a one-time payment for British Columbians who receive federal Employment Insurance (EI), or the new federal Canada Emergency Response Benefit as a result of COVID-19 impacts. This includes workers who have been laid-off, who are sick or quarantined, parents with sick children, parents who stay at home from work while child care centres and schools are closed, and those caring for sick family members, such as an elderly parent. The workers can be EI-eligible and non-EI eligible, such as the self-employed. The benefit will be paid to B.C. residents, in addition to their federal income supports.

B.C COVID-19 Action Plan

Enhanced Climate Action Tax Credit

In July 2020, eligible families of four will receive up to $564 and eligible individuals will receive up to $218 in an enhanced payment. This boosts the regular climate action tax credit payment of up to $112.50 per family of four and up to $43.50 per adult.

Government of Canada

Enhanced Canada Child Benefit (CCB)

The maximum annual CCB payment amounts will be increased, only for the 2019-20 benefit year, by $300 per child. The overall increase for families receiving CCB will be approximately $550 on average; these families will receive an extra $300 per child as part of their May payment.

Government of Canada

Enhanced Goods and Services Tax Credit (GSTC)

A one-time special payment by early May 2020 through the GSTC for individuals who file their income tax and benefit return before June 1, 2020. This will double the maximum annual GSTC payment amounts for the 2019-20 benefit year. The average boost to income for those benefitting from this measure will be close to $400 for single individuals and close to $600 for couples.

Government of Canada

Registered Retirement Income Funds (RRIFs) & Registered Pension Plans (RPPs)

Required minimum withdrawals from RRIFs will be reduced by 25% for 2020, in recognition of volatile market conditions and their impact on many seniors’ retirement savings. This will provide flexibility to seniors that are concerned that they may be required to liquidate their RRIF assets to meet minimum withdrawal requirements. Similar rules would apply to individuals receiving variable benefit payments under a defined contribution RPP.

Government of Canada

Mortgage and Credit Product Assistance

The federal government, through the Canadian Mortgage and Housing Corporation (CMHC), is providing increased flexibility for homeowners facing financial difficulties to defer mortgage payments on homeowner CMHC-insured mortgage loans. CMHC will permit lenders to allow payment deferral beginning immediately.

Financial Institutions

Speak to your Lender

Canada’s largest financial institutions (BMO, CIBC, National Bank of Canada, RBC, Scotiabank, and TD Bank), as well as some credit unions like Vancity are committed to working with personal and business banking customers on a case-by-case basis to provide flexible solutions. Support will include up to a six-month payment deferral for mortgages, and the opportunity for relief on other credit products.

B.C COVID-19 Action Plan

Support for Renters and People Experiencing Homelessness
In response to the pandemic and resulting financial stress, B.C. has increased funding for housing supports and is working to ensure people can maintain their housing in the event of job or income loss.

The B.C. government is providing temporary relief for renters of up to $500/month for 4 months through the BC Temporary Rental Supplement (BC-TRS) Program, imposing a moratorium on evictions (with some exceptions) while B.C.’s emergency order is in place, and placing a freeze on new annual rent increases by landlords. Benefiting people with low to moderate incomes, the BC-TRS will be available to renters who are facing financial hardship as a result of the COVID-19 crisis, but do not qualify for existing rental assistance programs.

BC Rent Bank

Rent Bank Programs
For renters in some parts of the province it is possible to receive emergency help for rent payments and one-time interest-free loans.

Government of Canada

Canada Student Loan Assistance
The Federal government is placing a six-month interest-free moratorium on the repayment of Canada Student Loans for all individuals currently in the process of repaying these loans.

B.C. COVID-19 Action Plan

B.C. Student Loan Assistance
Starting March 30, 2020, the BC government is freezing B.C. student loan payments for six months.

Government of Canada

Tax Filing Deadlines for Individuals Extended
The deadline for individuals to file income tax and benefit returns has been deferred until June 1, 2020. The deadline to pay any balance due for individual income tax and benefit returns for 2019 has been extended from April 30, 2020, to September 1, 2020. This means individuals will not be assessed any penalties or interest if the balance due is paid by September 1, 2020.

Government of Canada

Support for Indigenous Communities
Indigenous Services Canada is working closely with First Nation partners to protect the health and safety of First Nations and support First Nations communities in responding to the public health crisis resulting from COVID-19.

BC Hydro

Support for BC Hydro Customers

COVID-19 Customer Assistance Program:
All BC Hydro customers have the option to defer bill payments or arrange for flexible payment plans with no penalty. Residential customers facing temporary financial hardship and possible disconnection of their service due to job loss, illness, or loss of a family member may be eligible for BC Hydro’s Customer Crisis Fund, which provides access to grants of up to $600 to pay bills.

COVID-19 Relief Fund for Residential Customers:
Residential customers who have lost employment or have become unable to work due to COVID-19 may be eligible for free bill credit equal to three months of their average monthly electricity consumption between April 1, 2019 and March 31, 2020.
Insurance Corporation of British Columbia

Support for ICBC Customers

ICBC customers on a monthly Autoplan payment plan, who are facing financial challenges due to COVID-19, can defer their payment for up to 90 days with no penalty. Apply online or call 1-800-665-6442.
