

Fill out this form to recommend approval for a child employment permit. This recommendation is required if school will be in session during the child's anticipated employment period. This recommendation is collected to allow the school to share information, such as whether the child's education or development could be impacted or harmed by a work relationship, with the Employment Standards Branch. The Employment Standards Branch decides whether a permit is issued to the employer.

The employer of the child is responsible for maintaining a safe workplace per occupational health and safety legislation. See WorkSafeBC's website for more information.
