RE: Confirmation of dates for Submission of the Environmental Impact Assessment Report and Action Plan pursuant to Pollution Prevention Order #108432, as amended on July 29, 2016.

Further to the November 21, 2016 conference call between your legal counsel, Jennifer Nyland of Lawson Lundell and the Ministry's legal counsel, Barbara Thomson and Elisabeth Graff, of the Ministry of Justice, this letter confirms that for the purposes of compliance with Pollution Prevention Order #108432, as amended on July 29, 2016 (the Order), if the Ken and Brenda Regehr Feedlot Environmental Impact Assessment report and Action Plan are submitted by Ken and Brenda Regehr and received by the Director's office, and the Action Plan posted by the dates specified below, as Deputy Director, I will accept the submissions as having met the requirements under the Order as identified below:

Requirement 3: Submit the Environmental Impact Assessment (EIA) together with the results of the comprehensive monitoring program to the Director – the EIA and the comprehensive monitoring program are received by the Director's office by December 12, 2016.

Requirement 4: "Retain a Qualified Professional to prepare an Action Plan detailing measures to be taken to abate the environmental impacts identified in the EIA and submit the Action Plan to the Director" – the Action Plan is received by the Director's office by January 6, 2017.

Requirement 7: "Must publically post the Action Plan required by this order" – the Action Plan must be posted publically by January 6, 2017."

Compliance verification pertaining to these three requirements under the Order will not commence until after the above noted dates. For compliance purposes for any other matter under the Order, Ken and Brenda Regehr remain required to meet all other terms and conditions as stated in the Pollution Prevention Order #108432 as amended on July 29, 2016.
