23. Tla'amin Law is of no force or effect to the extent of an inconsistency or Conflict with this Agreement.

INTERNATIONAL LEGAL OBLIGATIONS

24. After the Effective Date, before consenting to be bound by a new International Treaty that would give rise to a new International Legal Obligation that may adversely affect a right of the Tla'amin Nation under this Agreement, Canada will Consult with the Tla'amin Nation in relation to the International Treaty either separately or through a forum that Canada determines is appropriate.
25. Where Canada informs the Tla'amin Nation that it considers that a Tla'amin Law or other exercise of power by the Tla'amin Government causes Canada to be unable to perform an International Legal Obligation, the Tla'amin Nation and Canada will discuss remedial measures to enable Canada to perform the International Legal Obligation.
26. Subject to paragraph 27, the Tla'amin Nation will remedy the Tla'amin Law or other exercise of power by the Tla'amin Government to the extent necessary to enable Canada to perform the International Legal Obligation.
27. Subject to paragraph 29, where Canada and the Tla'amin Nation disagree over whether a Tla'amin Law or other exercise of power by the Tla'amin Government causes Canada to be unable to perform an International Legal Obligation, the dispute will be finally determined by arbitration under the Dispute Resolution Chapter, and:
 - a. where the arbitrator, having taken into account all relevant considerations, including any reservations and exceptions taken by Canada, determines that the Tla'amin Law or other exercise of power by the Tla'amin Government does not cause Canada to be unable to perform the International Legal Obligation, or that the remedial measures are sufficient to enable Canada to perform the International Legal Obligation, Canada will not take any further action for this reason aimed at changing the Tla'amin Law or other exercise of power by the Tla'amin Government; or
 - b. where the arbitrator, having taken into account all relevant considerations, including any reservations and exceptions available to Canada, determines that the Tla'amin Law or other exercise of power by the Tla'amin Government causes Canada to be unable to perform the International Legal Obligation, or that the remedial measures are insufficient to enable Canada to perform the International Legal Obligation, the Tla'amin Nation will remedy the Tla'amin Law or other exercise of power by the Tla'amin Government to the extent necessary to enable Canada to perform the International Legal Obligation.

28. Canada will Consult with the Tla'amin Nation in relation to the development of positions taken by Canada before an International Tribunal where a Tla'amin Law or other exercise of power by the Tla'amin Government has given rise to an issue concerning the performance of an International Legal Obligation of Canada and Canada's positions before the International Tribunal will take into account the commitment of the Parties to the integrity of this Agreement.
29. Where there is a finding of an International Tribunal of non-performance of an International Legal Obligation of Canada attributable to a Tla'amin Law or other exercise of power by the Tla'amin Government, the Tla'amin Nation will, at the request of Canada, remedy the Tla'amin Law or other exercise of power by the Tla'amin Government to enable Canada to perform the International Legal Obligation consistent with the compliance of Canada or British Columbia, as applicable, with that International Legal Obligation.

APPLICATION OF THE INDIAN ACT

30. Subject to the Transition Chapter, the Indian Act does not apply to the Tla'amin Nation, Tla'amin Institutions, Tla'amin Citizens, Tla'amin Lands and Other Tla'amin Lands, except for:
 - a. the purpose of determining whether an individual is an "Indian"; and
 - b. section 87 of that Act in respect of Tla'amin Citizens prior to the dates set out in paragraph 16 of the Taxation Chapter.
31. Subject to paragraph 6 of the Transition Chapter, the Framework Agreement on First Nation Land Management, the First Nations Land Management Act and the Sliammon First Nation Land Code have no application to the Tla'amin Nation, Tla'amin Institutions, Tla'amin Citizens or Tla'amin Lands.
32. For so long as the First Nations Land Management Act is in force, Canada will indemnify the Tla'amin Nation, and the Tla'amin Nation will indemnify Canada, in relation to Former Sliammon Indian Reserves, in the same manner and under the same conditions as would be the case if that Act applied to those lands.

33. Tla'amin Citizens who are Canadian citizens or permanent residents of Canada continue to be entitled to all of the rights and benefits for which they would otherwise be eligible as Canadian citizens or permanent residents of Canada.

34. 35. Nothing in this Agreement affects the ability of the Tla'amin Nation, Tla'amin Institutions, Tla'amin Corporations or Tla'amin Citizens to apply for or bid on any commercial, economic or other activity or project for which they would otherwise be eligible.
36. Tla'amin Citizens are eligible to participate in programs established by Canada or British Columbia and to receive public services from Canada or British Columbia, in accordance with general criteria established for those programs or public services from time to time, to the extent that the Tla'amin Nation has not assumed responsibility for those programs or public services under a Fiscal Financing Agreement or other funding agreement.

 - b. the provision will be severable from this Agreement to the extent of the invalidity or unenforceability and the remainder of this Agreement will be construed, to the extent possible, to give effect to the intent of the Parties.
38. No Party will challenge, or support a challenge to, the validity of any provision of this Agreement.
39. A breach of this Agreement by a Party does not relieve any Party from its obligations under this Agreement.

OTHER ABORIGINAL PEOPLE

52. Nothing in this Agreement affects, recognizes or provides any rights under section 35 of the Constitution Act, 1982 for any aboriginal people other than the Tla'amin Nation.
53. Where a superior court of a province, the Federal Court of Canada or the Supreme Court of Canada finally determines that any aboriginal people, other than the Tla'amin Nation, have rights under section 35 of the Constitution Act, 1982 that are adversely affected by a provision of this Agreement:

- a. the provision will operate and have effect to the extent that it does not adversely affect those rights; and

Within 60 days of the end of that discussion each Party will provide the other Parties with its written response on any matter discussed during that Review Period.
62. The periodic review under paragraphs 58 to 65 and all discussions and information relating to the periodic review are without prejudice to the legal positions of the Parties, unless the Parties otherwise agree. Nothing made or done in relation to a periodic review, including the discussions or the responses provided by the Parties, except for any amendments made pursuant to paragraph 64, creates any legally binding rights or obligations.
63. Except for the Parties' commitment to meet and provide written responses under paragraph 61, neither the periodic review process under paragraphs 58 to 65, nor the decisions or actions of the Parties relating in any way to the periodic review process, is:

- a. subject to the Dispute Resolution Chapter; or
 - b. reviewable by a court or in any other forum.

INFORMATION AND PRIVACY

66. For the purposes of federal and provincial access to information and privacy legislation, information that the Tla'amin Nation provides to Canada or British Columbia in confidence is deemed to be information received or obtained in confidence from another government.
67. Where the Tla'amin Nation requests disclosure of information from Canada or British Columbia, the request will be evaluated as if it were a request by a province for disclosure of that information, but Canada and British Columbia are not required to disclose to the Tla'amin Nation information that is only available to a particular province or particular provinces, or that is not available to any provinces.
68. The Parties may enter into agreements in relation to any one or more of the collection, protection, retention, use, disclosure and confidentiality of personal, general or other information in accordance with any applicable legislation, including federal and provincial access to information and privacy legislation.
69. Canada or British Columbia may provide information to the Tla'amin Nation in confidence if the Tla'amin Nation has made a law or has entered into an agreement with Canada or British Columbia, as the case may be, under which the confidentiality of the information will be protected.

70. Notwithstanding any other provision of this Agreement:
- a. Canada and British Columbia are not required to disclose any information that they are required or authorized to withhold under Federal or Provincial Law, including under sections 37 to 39 of the Canada Evidence Act,
 - b. where Federal or Provincial Law allows the disclosure of certain information only if specified conditions for disclosure are satisfied, Canada and British Columbia are not required to disclose that information unless those conditions are satisfied; and
 - c. the Parties are not required to disclose any information that may be withheld under a privilege at law.

OBLIGATION TO NEGOTIATE

71. Where the Parties are obliged under this Agreement to negotiate and attempt to reach agreement all Parties will participate in the negotiations, unless the Parties otherwise agree.
72. Where this Agreement provides that the Parties, or any two of them, “will negotiate and attempt to reach agreement”, those negotiations will be conducted as set out in the Dispute Resolution Chapter, but no Party is obliged to proceed to arbitration under Stage Three unless, in a particular case, they are required to do so under paragraph 27 of the Dispute Resolution Chapter.
73. Where this Agreement provides that a dispute will be “finally determined by arbitration”, the dispute will be referred to arbitration under paragraph 27 of the Dispute Resolution Chapter, unless none of the Parties directly engaged in the Disagreement delivers notice to all Parties under Appendix X-6.

ENTIRE AGREEMENT

74. This Agreement is the entire agreement among the Parties in respect of the subject matter of this Agreement and, except as set out in this Agreement, there is no representation, warranty, collateral agreement, condition, right or obligation affecting this Agreement.
75. The Schedules and Appendices to this Agreement form part of this Agreement.

77. Unless the Parties otherwise agree, this Agreement may not be assigned, either in whole or in part, by any Party.

ENUREMENT

78. This Agreement will enure to the benefit of and be binding upon the Parties and their respective permitted assigns.

79. After ratification of this Agreement by the Tla'amin Nation, but before the Parties sign this Agreement, the Chief Negotiators on behalf of Canada, British Columbia and the Tla'amin Nation may agree to minor changes to this Agreement.
80. Before the Effective Date, the Chief Negotiators for Canada, British Columbia and the Tla'amin Nation may agree to amendments to this Agreement and the Appendices to update information or correct any editing, grammatical or typographical errors. Any updated information or corrections may be incorporated in the printing of this Agreement and the Appendices after the Effective Date.

29. Where, under paragraph 28, the Minister wishes to reduce a Tla'amin Fish Allocation, the Minister will inform the Tla'amin Nation and the Joint Fisheries Committee of the proposed reduction and, if time permits, will take into account any written recommendations on the proposed reduction received from the Joint Fisheries Committee before implementing the reduction.

55. Where the Tla'amin Nation believes that the Tla'amin Fish Allocation for a Non-Allocated Species that has been determined by the Minister has significant differences from the recommendations of the Joint Fisheries Committee under paragraph 48 or the Tla'amin Nation under paragraph 46, the Tla'amin Nation may request the Minister to provide written reasons to the Tla'amin Nation in respect of the basis of the determination by the Minister of the Tla'amin Fish Allocation for that species in accordance with paragraph 52, and the Minister will provide such reasons.

REGIONAL MANAGEMENT ADVISORY PROCESS FOR ABORIGINAL FISHERIES

102. Where a regional management advisory process for aboriginal fisheries exists or is established by Canada or British Columbia for the coordination of fisheries for an area that includes all or a portion of the Tla'amin Fishing Area, the Tla'amin Nation will participate in that process.
103. Subject to paragraph 104, for the coordination of fisheries, where a regional management advisory process for aboriginal fisheries has functions and activities similar to those of the Joint Fisheries Committee, and the Minister determines that a function or activity of the Joint Fisheries Committee can be carried out more effectively by the regional process in accordance with paragraph 107, that function or activity will be carried out by that process.
104. Unless otherwise agreed by the Parties, a function or activity of the Joint Fisheries Committee under paragraphs 32 to 34, 47 to 50, 53, 85.c, 92.g, 94.a, 95 to 97, 127, sections 8 and 17 of Schedule 1 and section 7 of Schedule 2 will remain a function or activity of the Joint Fisheries Committee and will not be carried out by the regional management advisory process for aboriginal fisheries.
105. Before the Minister determines that a function or activity of the Joint Fisheries Committee will be carried out by the regional management advisory process for aboriginal fisheries under paragraph 107, the Minister will provide notice to the Parties, with a copy to the Joint Fisheries Committee, of the functions or activities of the Joint Fisheries Committee that the Minister proposes can be carried out more effectively by the regional process.
106. Upon the Minister providing such notice to the Parties under paragraph 105, the Joint Fisheries Committee will:
 - a. convene a meeting to discuss whether the functions or activities proposed by the Minister can be carried out more effectively by the regional management advisory process for aboriginal fisheries; and
 - b. provide recommendations to the Minister.
107. The Minister will review the recommendations of the Joint Fisheries Committee made under paragraph 106 and determine any functions or activities that will be carried out by the regional management advisory process for aboriginal fisheries and notify the Parties in writing.

108. Upon the Minister notifying the Parties of the functions or activities that will be carried out by the regional management advisory process for aboriginal fisheries as determined under paragraph 107, the Tla'amin Nation, if it believes that a function or activity of the Joint Fisheries Committee that will be carried out by the regional process cannot be carried out more effectively by that process, may provide written reasons to the Minister as to why the regional process will be less effective than the Joint Fisheries Committee carrying out the function or activity. Upon receipt of the reasons by the Tla'amin Nation, the Minister will respond in writing to the Tla'amin Nation.
109. Where a function or activity of the Joint Fisheries Committee will be carried out by a regional management advisory process for aboriginal fisheries as determined by the Minister under paragraph 107:

 - c. a reference in this Agreement to the Joint Fisheries Committee will be read as a reference to the regional process for that function or activity.
110. The Joint Fisheries Committee will continue to carry out any function or activity that is not carried out by the regional management advisory process for aboriginal fisheries and may discuss any changes that should be made to the operating procedures of the Joint Fisheries Committee as a result of the regional management advisory process for aboriginal fisheries carrying out a function or activity of the Joint Fisheries Committee as determined by the Minister under paragraph 107.
111. Where a regional management advisory process for aboriginal fisheries carries out a function or activity of the Joint Fisheries Committee and, in carrying out the function or activity, makes a recommendation to the Minister, a Party may submit its own written recommendation to the Minister if it does not agree with the recommendation of the regional process and, when doing so, will provide a copy of its own recommendations to the other Parties who have appointed a member to the Joint Fisheries Committee. Upon receipt of the written recommendation from one of the Joint Fisheries Committee members, the Minister will respond in writing to the Joint Fisheries Committee.

112. Following a determination by the Minister under paragraph 107 that a function or activity will be carried out by the regional management advisory process for aboriginal fisheries, the Joint Fisheries Committee will, from time to time, discuss the effectiveness of the regional management advisory process for aboriginal fisheries in carrying out a function or activity of the Joint Fisheries Committee, and may provide recommendations to the Minister that a function or activity should be carried out by the Joint Fisheries Committee. The Minister will review the recommendations of the Joint Fisheries Committee and determine whether a function or activity will continue to be carried out by the regional management advisory process for aboriginal fisheries or should be resumed to be carried out by the Joint Fisheries Committee. The Minister will notify the Parties in writing of any determination.
113. Following a determination by the Minister under paragraph 107 that a function or activity of the Joint Fisheries Committee will be carried out by a regional management advisory process for aboriginal fisheries, the Minister may, from time to time, determine that a function carried out by the regional process is more effectively carried out by the Joint Fisheries Committee and should be resumed by the Joint Fisheries Committee. Upon the Minister determining that a function or activity should be resumed by the Joint Fisheries Committee, the Minister will notify the Parties in writing and the Parties will update the Tla'amin Fisheries Operational Guidelines, as required, to reflect the resumption.
114. Canada or British Columbia may terminate a regional management advisory process for aboriginal fisheries that has been established and, if a regional management advisory process for aboriginal fisheries is terminated and is not replaced by another process, the Joint Fisheries Committee will resume carrying out its original functions or activities and the Parties will revise the Tla'amin Fisheries Operational Guidelines to reflect the resumption.
115. For greater certainty, a regional management advisory process for aboriginal fisheries does not include an international advisory process.

PUBLIC FISHERIES ADVISORY PROCESS

STAGE THREE: ADJUDICATION – ARBITRATION

27. Where a Disagreement arises out of any provision of this Agreement that provides that a dispute will be “finally determined by arbitration”, the Disagreement will, where a Party directly engaged in the Disagreement has delivered a notice of arbitration to all Parties as required under Appendix X-6, be referred to and finally resolved by arbitration in accordance with that Appendix.
28. A Disagreement, other than a Disagreement referred to in paragraph 27, with the written agreement of all Parties directly engaged in the Disagreement, will be referred to and finally resolved by arbitration in accordance with Appendix X-6.
29. Where two Parties make a written agreement under paragraph 28, they will deliver a copy of the agreement to the other Party that is not directly engaged in the Disagreement.
30. A Party not directly engaged in a Disagreement will be added as a party to the arbitration of that Disagreement, whether or not that Party has participated in collaborative negotiations or a required facilitated process, upon that Party delivering written notice to the participating Parties to the arbitration within 15 days after receiving notice under paragraph 27 or copy of a written agreement under paragraph 28.

31. Notwithstanding paragraph 30, an arbitral tribunal may make an order adding a Party as a participating Party at any time if the arbitral tribunal considers that:
- a. the participating Parties will not be unduly prejudiced; or
 - b. the issues stated in the pleadings are materially different from those identified in the notice to arbitrate under paragraph 27 or the written agreement to arbitrate in paragraph 28, and, in that event, the arbitral tribunal may make any order it considers appropriate or necessary in the circumstances respecting conditions, including the payment of costs, upon which the Party may be added.

EFFECT OF ARBITRAL AWARD

32. An arbitral award is final and binding on all Parties whether or not a Party has participated in the arbitration.

 - ii. the pleadings and any amendments or supplements to the pleadings; or
 - b. the arbitral tribunal refused to add the Party as a participating Party to the arbitration under paragraph 31.

39. Nothing in subparagraph 38.a prevents an arbitral tribunal or the participating Parties from requesting the Supreme Court of British Columbia to make a ruling respecting a question of law as permitted in Appendix X-6.

40. Where, in any judicial or administrative proceeding, an issue arises in respect of:
- a. the interpretation or validity of this Agreement; or
 - b. the validity or applicability of:
 - i. the Federal Settlement Legislation or the Provincial Settlement Legislation; or
 - ii. any Tla'amin Law,
- the issue will not be decided until the party raising the issue has properly served notice on the Attorney General of British Columbia, the Attorney General of Canada and the Tla'amin Nation.
41. In any judicial or administrative proceeding to which paragraph 40 applies, the Attorney General of British Columbia, the Attorney General of Canada and the Tla'amin Nation may appear and participate in the proceedings as parties with the same rights as any other party.
